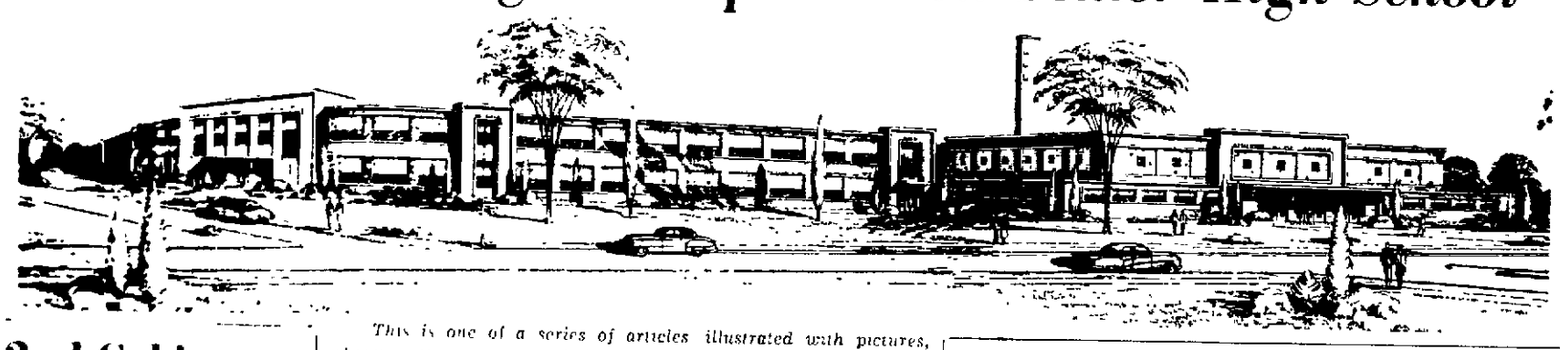
RED CHINESE LAUNCH MAJOR OFFENSIVE

Spacious Building Will Feature Modern Facilities

Architect's Drawing of Proposed New Senior High School



This is one of a series of articles illustrated with pictures, showing the urgent need for passing at the May 8 election a $2,900,000 school bond issue. The money will be used for a new senior high school and improvements to other city schools

Includes Shops; Art, Music Wing; Gym-Assembly Room

"Marion will have a new senior high school it can be proud of if the $2,900,000 bond issue is passed at the May 8 primary election." Lester L. Dickey, superintendent of schools, said today.

In describing the proposed senior high building Mr. Dickey said, "It will be the first built here to contain a completely modern fully rounded high school program of senior high school activities, such is now impossible at Harding."

Its total cost is estimated at about $3,000,000.

It will be built in the shape, roughly, of a hollow square fronting 450½ feet on Seminole avenue and 431 feet on Mandana avenue with the northwest corner of the square modified to meet the angle of the street intersection.

Both the first and second floors will have 19 classrooms each.

Gym-Assembly Room

There will be a combination gymnasium and assembly room with a seating capacity of 1,600 and a playing floor 50 by 84 feet.

This room will be equipped to handle all types of school assembly activities in which large groups of students are concerned.

It will have a complete kitchen and school lunchroom, fully equipped automotive, machine, pattern making and industrial arts shops with plenty of work space for all students.

The new building will also have a music and art wing in which band, orchestra and choral groups may rehearse and study without disturbing the remainder of the school. The art wing will be something new in senior high school construction here and will be similar to the art wing at the new State Street Junior High School, which is the city's first custom built art training department.

Conference Rooms

There will be storage rooms for school supplies and conference rooms for school meetings.

The administrative offices of the school will be located at the main entrance which will corner on Seminole and Mandana avenues.

The new school will be built to meet not only the needs of the city in 1951 but will have sufficient capacity to accommodate even the 1,600 student enrollment that State Bureau of Education Research has predicted Marion will have in 1965.

A comparison of the various cubic areas allotted for specific purposes in the building will give an idea of its planned uses, Mr. Dickey said.

The total cubic space of the building is 2,227,597 cubic feet. Of this 837,411 cubic feet will house the academic portion of the school, the classrooms and laboratories. The band and art wing will contain 11,592 cubic feet, the dining room and kitchen 123,256 cubic feet, science and shop rooms 479,304, gymnasium - assembly room 608,868 and boiler room 68,116.

The building was designed by the architectural firm of McLaughlin and Keil of Lima, architects for the new State Street Junior High School.

2nd Cabinet Member Quits In Britain

Crisis Widens After Plan To Cut Free Medical Services

LONDON, April 23—(AP)—The crisis in British Socialist government circles deepening today. Informed sources said a second cabinet member has quit in protest against the trimming of free medical services in favor of the rearmament drive.

These sources said the cabinet's youngest member, 35-year-old Harold Wilson, had handed in his resignation as president of the board of trade.

Such a move would further block Prime Minister Attlee's unsteady Labor government, already reeling under the impact of Party Aneurin Bevan's resignation yesterday from the post of Labor minister.

More to Follow

There were unconfirmed reports that one or two junior ministers were planning to follow Bevan and Wilson.

Labor party circles believed the revolt might result in the government's defeat in the budget debates this week, forcing a general election soon. With Socialist popularity generally conceded to be at a low point now, Winston Churchill's conservatives gleefully predicted they soon would be back in power.

Wilson, failing to show up for today's cabinet meeting at No. 10 Downing Street, went to his office in the board of trade. His only comment on reports that he had resigned was:

"I have no statement to make."

Lord Beaverbrook's big Daily Express sounded a note of editorial delight. It said Bevan "has already succeeded in destroying the government." The pro-Conservative Express said that where "even Mr. Churchill's oratory had failed to defeat the government Mr. Bevan on his own has succeeded."

Quits

Bevan quit with a blast at "the scale of military expenditure." He said the Socialists should pay for any rearming by a new soak-the-rich program of taxes, and leave alone "the free spectacles and false teeth" he instituted when he was minister of health.

Warns U. S., Britain Need Each Other

NEW YORK, April 23—(AP)—Lewis W. Douglas, former ambassador to Great Britain, said today the United States and Britain need each other now "more than at any time in their history."

In between the two major seats of power—the USSR in the East and the United States in the West—Britain represents the last reliable bastion of strength between the Iron Curtain and our own shores," Douglas said.

He spoke at the annual luncheon of The Associated Press, world-wide news gathering cooperative. His address before more than 1,100 persons in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel was broadcast over the Mutual Network.

Douglas, now chairman of the board of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, was ambassador to Britain from 1947 until early 1950.

He said that differences of opinion that exist between the United States and Britain over certain actions in the field of foreign affairs "But he said that these differences are not more than what

Draft Call For Doctors Issued

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—The Defense Department called today for the draft of 1,202 doctors during July, August and September.

Officials said the draft call is needed because there have not been enough volunteers to fill medical needs. If enough doctors volunteer, the present requisition will not be necessary, the department said.

The call is for priority one doctors—men who received medical education at government expense or were deferred from service during World War II to attend medical school, and who have served less than 90 days in the armed forces.

Staff Chiefs Ready Views For Congress

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Military Reporter

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—The joint chiefs of staff, one of the least communicative groups in Washington, probably will be compelled to divulge some of its family secrets to Congress.

The nation-shaking row that has burst out of President Truman's firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur and the general's speech to Congress has confronted the four-man military high command with the necessity of talking.

Already the defense department has issued an implied challenge to MacArthur's assertion that his views on how the Far East war should be prosecuted—from a military standpoint—have been fully shared by practically every military leader in the past, including the J. C. S.

The department, in a weekend statement, said an analysis of the "basic differences" between MacArthur and the J. C. S. would be given to the "appropriate congressional committees."

On capitol hill, present planning indicates these will be the Senate's armed services and foreign relations committees, although some Republican leaders want also to include House committees in the joint inquiry into the policies and strategy of the Korean war.

The expected star witnesses are big names, including MacArthur and Secretary of Defense Marshall. The joint chiefs, too appear to be preparing for questioning.

During the latter half of last week, the chiefs held a series of unusual and prolonged sessions in their well-guarded suite of Pentagon offices.

Await Arrival In Vienna Of Freed Vogeler

VIENNA, Austria, April 23—(AP)—The attractive, Belgian-born wife of American business executive Robert A. Vogeler worriedly awaited more news today of her husband. She was fearful lest something happen "at the last minute" to prevent his return from the Hungarian prison where he has spent 17 months as a U. S. spy.

Vogeler's whereabouts remained a mystery. In Budapest neither the Hungarian government, which announced Saturday he would be freed, nor the U. S. embassy would say when or where he would be released, or whether this already had been done.

The trans-European Arlberg express, Bucharest to Budapest to Vienna to Paris, arrived today without Vogeler aboard.

At the Austro-Hungarian border, 40 miles east of Vienna, Austrian police said there had been no sign at the highway frontier post of the 39-year-old vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

U. S. Minister Nathaniel P. Davis in Budapest said any further word would have to come from the Hungarian government.

The Hungarian government said nothing.

"It's probably much too early yet for Bob to arrive," Mrs. Lucille Vogeler said early today at the Vienna apartment where she lives with their two young sons. "I am not very anxious, but one always worries whether something may happen at the last minute to prevent his return."

Vogeler was sentenced late in 1949 to 15 years in prison, after conviction on espionage charges by a Communist court in Budapest.

Taft Leads Drive For Policy Probe

Truman-MacArthur Controversy Slated For Full Airing

WASHINGTON, April 23—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today Republicans are going to insist upon an investigation of "every aspect" of the Truman-MacArthur controversy over Far Eastern policies.

Taft made the statement to a reporter amid indications that the military high command will give investigating senators a look at just about anything they want to see during their inquiry. Informed Pentagon sources, however, said a considerable part of the record is likely to be spread out only in closed-door sessions.

Taft said he will call the Senate Republican Policy Committee together within the next few days to study "practical ways of getting a complete investigation."

The committee already has endorsed a proposal by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) to set up a 24-member committee from the Senate and House to inquire into military and foreign policies.

Approval Doubtful

But there is doubt that the Republicans can win sufficient support to get approval of this resolution. An agreement already has been reached for the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Affairs Committees to go into the over-all reasons behind President Truman's firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as Pacific commander.

Boiled down, the differences are that Mr. Truman wants to fight a limited war in Korea and contends that MacArthur's proposals to blockade Red China, send planes over Manchuria and use Chinese Nationalist troops might nudge Russia into starting World War III. MacArthur says the Chinese Communists cannot be defeated by present strategy.

Chairman Russell (D-Ga) arranged a conference with the Armed Services Committee's professional staff to check over any documents it may have assembled.

The Defense Department announced Saturday night that it will make available to congressional committees concerned an analysis of the "basic differences" between MacArthur's position and that of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

In his speech to Congress last Thursday, MacArthur said he understood that his views on how to wage the Korean war—from a military standpoint—had been shared by virtually all military leaders, including the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The dispute boiled up in a new direction over the weekend following publication of an admin-

Attack Along Wide Front; Allies Yield

Withdraw Up To 12 Miles; Straighten Defense Lines

TOKYO, April 24—(AP)—United Nations troops pulled back as much as 12 miles under the impact of a major Red offensive which raged along 100 miles of the Korean front today.

In other sectors the Allies stopped the Reds cold. Where the Allies withdrew it was in orderly fashion.

The Communists, with nearly 700,000 men facing the front, launched their attack at 7:30 Sunday night behind their heaviest artillery barrage of the war. Their assault eased in daylight Monday, but was renewed with fresh vigor Monday night.

One intelligence officer called the attack the Reds "main effort." But another spokesman said Monday it's still too early to tell if it is the Reds' long-expected big spring push.

Close censorship delayed news of the offensive 14½ hours. Then it permitted only a fragmentary picture of the battle. This was it:

The Reds forced a crossing of the Imjin river along a 15 mile front in the west. They were checked by concentrated U. N. air and artillery fire. This crossing is 25 miles northwest to 30 miles north of Seoul, shell-shattered South Korean capital.

United Nations troops pulled back south to the Hantan river, in the adjoining sector to the east. They blew their bridges behind them.

The eastern front was static with none of those cuts in Chinese cut down by artillery and air bombardment.

"Roll With Punch"

All along the central front Allied troops "rolled with the punch." They fought from new positions Monday night over a battlefield garishly lighted by giant search lights flood lights and flares dropped from planes.

(U. N. withdrawals below the Hantan and on the central front apparently were to straighten the Allied line. It bulged north and at this point Heaviest concentrations of Red troops were in the area.)

Allied forces stood firm on the east central front against Red assaults through Sunday night and Monday morning. Then it grew quieter.

On the extreme right the Reds drove wedges into the defense line north of Inje.

Attacking Reds took terrific punishment from U. N. air and artillery, both blasting away around the clock. Airmen estimated they killed 1,804 Reds Monday, their biggest toll in three and a half months.

In far northwest Korea 12 U. S. Sabre jets shot down four Russian made MIG jets and damaged another four. It was the largest air battle in ten days. And it raised to 159 the number of MIG jets knocked out since early November.

Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the U. S. 8th Army, had expressed confidence before the Red assault that his men could stop any Red counterblow. He added: "If the enemy knew what I know, he would go back to China right now."

Despite withdrawals the U. N. forces appeared to be bearing out the general's words.

Longest Pullback

The longest pullback was in the far west. There Allied units which had been as much as 12 miles north of the 38th Parallel pulled back south of the hypothetical dividing line between North and South Korea.

They joined other Allied units south of the Imjin river and checked the Communist assault, at least temporarily.

AP correspondent John Randolph reported that Allied elements which had driven back across the Imjin pulled up along new defense lines south of the river Monday.

Drive Against Inflation To Be Broadened

Labor, Agriculture Next in Line For "Freeze" Action

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—The administration's drive to stiffen inflation controls is about to switch to labor and agriculture, now that the toughening job on business is being completed.

A new wage stabilization board, established over the weekend by President Truman, will have as one of its first tasks the problem of a freeze on further living-cost pay increases for workers.

A somewhat similar plan for agriculture—a freeze on further changes in parity — is expected to be included among Mr. Truman's recommendations to congress for changes in the Defense Production Act. A return to wartime food subsidies is another probable proposal.

Has Opposition

Any proposal to freeze farmers' parity, Senator Maybank (D-SC) predicted, "doesn't stand a chance." Maybank, head of the Senate banking committee which handles wage-price control legislation, told a reporter "Congress not only will reject it, but in my opinion will write a provision into the law making a freeze on parity specifically illegal."

Hope for the lifting of some economic controls by early 1953, barring an all-out war, was expressed meanwhile by Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston.

On a broadcast yesterday however, Johnston said the full impact of military spending has not yet hit the economy and he said "the danger of inflation will be with us as long as the threat of communistic aggression is with us."

That new curbs on labor and agriculture are being considered was hinted by Johnston in another statement. In establishing a new industry earnings standard as a yardstick for allowing price increases, he said:

"We all recognize that inflation can't be stopped by piecemeal approaches or halfway measures. There must be firm stabilization policies in every area to support the increasing tempo and magnitude of our military defense and production program."

Johnston's new earnings standard bars any industry from receiving price increases if the industry's dollar profits exceed 85 percent of the profits average for the three best years out of the four in the 1946-49 period.

G.O.P. Would Trim 500,000 Workers

Aim Economy Drive At Federal Civilian Payroll

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—House Republicans are gearing up a new economy drive aimed at saving tax money by trimming some half a million civilian employes off the federal payroll.

Rep. Jensen (R-Iowa), a leader in the move, told a reporter today that such a cut in the payroll should "effect savings of at least $1,000,000,000" during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The plan appeared certain to gain the ears of some members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee. Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa), a committee member, said yesterday a nation-wide survey of businessmen indicated strong backing for a $5,000,000,000 cut in federal spending, as suggested by Senator Byrd (D-Va).

Simpson said 99 percent of the businessmen who replied to the poll favor Senator Byrd's proposal and 74 percent of them want to couple that with a federal sales tax the head off a general $10,000,000,000 tax increase proposed by the administration.

Simpson estimated that a five percent retail sales tax would bring in $5,000,000,000 a year.

15,000 Replies

Simpson said he carried out the survey in cooperation with the Committee of Americans which he described as a non-profit fact finding research organization covering all 48 states and Hawaii. Questionnaires were sent to some 30,000 businessmen of whom more than 15,000 replied, he said.

The plan for cutting back federal payrolls as Jensen outlined it boils down to this:

Starting July 1, civilian agencies would not be allowed to fill more than 25 percent of their vacancies with new employes. There would be no money appropriated to pay new employes over that percentage. Vacancies could be filled by promotions or transfers within a department. Key medical and law enforcement personnel, and essential defense workers would not be included under the plan.

Jensen estimated the monthly turnover among 2,300,000 federal jobs at around 2.5 percent or an annual turnover of almost one-third of the entire civilian pay roll.

"That is a minimum," he said. "It should be considerably higher. If they are allowed to fill only one-fourth of those vacancies by hiring new people it would mean that more than 500,000 jobs won't be filled.

"Including overhead, the pay of the employes involved would average $4,000 annually, or a total pay roll of around $2,000,000,000. But because the departure from

Steelworkers Local Backs Bond Issue

Local Union No. 1949 of the United Steelworkers of America, CIO, voted unanimously Sunday to endorse the $2,900,000 bond issue for a new senior high school and improvement of existing school buildings.

The bond issue will be voted on at the primary election May 8.

Local 1949 is one of Marion's largest CIO unions with a membership of 1,200. It is the collective bargaining agency for all the shop employes of the Marion Power Shovel Co. and is headed by Henry L. Korn.

The union met at the labor hall at 133½ E. Center street. The endorsement followed an explanation of the need for the bond issue given by Cleo L. Ludwig a member of the speaker's committee working passage of the bond issue.

Welder Hurt In Accident

Crushed by Section Of Dragline

Shelton Black, 34 of 235½ South State street, a welder, was seriously injured at 3:46 a.m. today while at work at the Marion Power Shovel Co.

Black suffered a broken collar bone on one side and chipped collar bone on the other and a broken right arm and right wrist. He was crushed between a 15-ton section of a dragline he was helping to assemble and an assembled piece of the same machine standing nearby.

The company reported the accident happened this way: An overhead crane had just placed the dragline section to be assembled—a steel section 40 feet long, five feet high and four feet wide and weighing 15 tons—on a table-like platform of steel rails.

After the crane turned the section over on the platform so welders could start work on it, Black and another welder stepped up to the section to begin work.

The overhead crane hook, which was being hauled back up after

Blair Moody New Senator In Michigan

LANSING, Mich., April 23—(AP)—Blair Moody, Washington correspondent for the Detroit News, was named today by Governor Mennen Williams as U. S. senator from Michigan succeeding the late Arthur H. Vandenberg.

The 49-year-old Moody has been assigned to the News Washington bureau since 1933. During World War II, he served as war correspondent for the News and the North American Newspaper Alliance (NANA).

"Senator Moody is a Democrat," Williams said in announcing the appointment. Moody's political affiliation was not generally known before, but his boss news editor Karl Lysinger of the Detroit News, described him as, "a New Dealer from the start."

Moody's appointment gives the Democrats a four-vote margin in the Senate. Vandenberg was a Republican.

Moody is a personal friend of Williams and was a long-time friend of Vandenberg. He went to Washington in 1933.

"Blair Moody most completely meets the needs of Michigan for Senate representation and needs of the nation for capable, vigorous and experienced leadership," Williams said.

"I know him as a fine citizen of high ability, a friend of Senator Vandenberg, Frank Murphy and Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

Slaying Case Before Newark Grand Jury

Studies Evidence In Strangulation Of Young Mother

NEWARK, O., April 23—(AP)—The Licking County grand jury was to study today the case of the pretty young mother who was strangled to death in her home early Saturday.

The victim, Mrs. Mary Adele Loewendick, 24, had been strangled. A short while later Robert Jamison Jr., 25, a close friend and neighbor of the Loewendicks, walked into police headquarters with blood on his face and hands and said:

"I've got a good one for you. I just killed a woman."

Jamison surrendered at the station accompanied by his wife. No charges have been filed against him.

Dr. M. H. Koehler, Licking County coroner, last night returned an official verdict of death by strangulation. He reported there are "no evidences of rape, but from the way things look he (the assailant) evidently tried to attack her."

Blacked Out

Jamison first told police he "blacked out" as soon as he went to the Loewendick home after drinking at several taverns.

The coroner said that Jamison revealed after inquest a few more details of what happened. The coroner said:

"Jamison admits that he beat her up on the couch and then pulled her onto the floor. He says he didn't know why he went there. But I think he will break and give police more on the case."

The coroner is expected to tell grand jurors of the marks found on Mrs. Loewendick's body, marks that indicate she fought desperately with her slayer.

The coroner said a post mortem examination revealed bruises on the inside of Mrs. Loewendick's thighs. "Pretty high up." The coroner said "I think he grabbed her there in the struggle."

Other Injuries

He listed these other injuries: "Her face was all bruised up, there were fingermarks on her throat, her lips were busted open, there were cuts above both eyes, her nose was bruised, and her eye was blackened."

Traces of blood on Jamison's car, shoes and clothes, when he walked into the police station to give himself up, said the coroner.

The grand jury has been in session for more than one week investigating gambling. Prosecutor Forrest Ashcraft said he would let it and jurors decide on whether to return an indictment without formally charging Jamison himself.

There will be a Requiem Mass Tuesday morning in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament for Mrs. Loewendick. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

ference summary of the Wake Island conference between Mr. Truman and MacArthur last October.

That summary published in the New York Times Saturday morning, said the general apologized to Mr. Truman for having embarrassed him last August in an expression of views about Formosa, predicted the Chinese Communists would not enter the fighting, and promised to have one of his divisions, the Second, ready shortly for transfer to Europe.

A MacArthur spokesman replied there had been no stenographic report on the Truman-MacArthur private talks and added the general had received no warnings of possible Chinese Red intervention from Washington.

Some Republicans accused the administration of "leaking" the report to bolster its stand. Senator Capehart (R-Ind) said he thinks the President himself was responsible. Senator Cain (R-Wash) said the information "obviously was planted."

There was no comment from the White House. Mr. Truman spent the week-end cruising aboard his yacht. Press secretary Joseph Short declined comment on the New York Times story. He said a copy of the paper was available on the President's yacht.

Correspondent Replies

As for G.O.P. charges the story had been planted, Times correspondent Anthony Leviero said in a second dispatch from Washington that he gained access to documented administration sources "entirely on his own initiative."

"They were in no sense proffered," he wrote. "To insure objective reporting, he made his own condition that no part of the record of the deliberations should be withdrawn from him."

Senator Nixon (R-Calif) called the Wake Island story the "first salvo" of "one of the most vicious smear campaigns in history x x x against General MacArthur."

"Acting under orders which came direct from the White House," Nixon said, "the Pentagon and State Department have put scores of their personnel to work digging into every single file dealing with General MacArthur's 52 years of military service."

Nixon said there are at least seven projects, covering such phases as MacArthur's military campaigns, his occupation administration in Japan, his intelligence communications to Washington and so on.

Nixon said that judging from the New York Times dispatch secret government documents from now on will be made public, not on the basis of national security, but if they will "affect the political security of the administration."

Award Contract For Ditch Improvement

E. M. Wesion of near Bucyrus, today was awarded a contract for improvement of the Somnanstine Ditch in Marion and Grand Prairie Townships on a low bid of $2,572.35.

Only other bid entered, a $2,698.37 bid by Lucas and Lucas of near Marion, was not considered by the county commissioners since it was above the county engineer's estimate of $2,673.35. Walter S. Gutherie, commission's clerk, reported.

The improvement project was petitioned for by Hazel B. Somnanstine and others of near Marion.

Mississippi Flood Spreads Into Iowa

By The Associated Press

The swollen Mississippi, on a springtime spree, plagued Iowa and Illinois towns along its upper reaches today after spreading havoc in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Eighty square blocks of Dubuque, Ia., were under water Sunday as the big river crested at 22.7 feet to top the 1880 record of 21.5 feet.

Downstream from Dubuque, patrols labored through the night sandbagging dikes. Highway 30 on both sides of the Clinton, Ia.-Fulton, Ill., bridge were water covered. Floodwater surrounded Sabula, Ia., and authorities there said that if either of two dikes should give way, the town will be submerged by 12 feet of water.

The Mississippi is expected to crest at 19.5 feet at Sabula today and at 20.7 feet at Clinton Wednesday.

Little Support For MacArthur

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur apparently can claim little support among Republican party leaders as a possible 1952 G.O.P. presidential candidate.

Instead, polls by the Associated Press indicate that the top officials of the party outside Congress are divided in primary allegiance between Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Twenty-three of the 25 Republican governors replied on their choice for the 1952 nominee. Of the 23, nine favor Eisenhower, two back Taft, one supports MacArthur and one favors Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor. Others were non-committal or said it is too early to pick probable candidates.

This gave Eisenhower a big edge among the governors and indicated they have ideas varying from those of members of the Republican national committee.

When the latter group met here in January, a poll of 65 of its members showed 29 of them for Taft, 12 for Eisenhower, four for Stassen and scattered other votes, none for MacArthur.

The views of the two groups are important because they will exert strong influence over the choice of delegates to next year's presidential nominating convention.

Testifies In Brehm Case

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—Mrs. Emma S. Craven, a former clerk for Rep. Walter E. Brehm (R-Ohio), resumed her testimony today about payments she said she made to the congressman out of her salary in 1948.

Brehm is on trial in federal court on charges that he illegally accepted campaign contributions.

Mrs. Craven, before the trial recessed for the weekend, testified she turned back to Brehm $210 monthly from February through July of 1948.

In addition, she said she mailed Brehm a similar amount in August when he was home in Millersport, O.

The 58-year-old congressman, a veteran of more than eight years in the House, is being tried under a seven-count indictment, charging him with unlawfully receiving $1,380 in campaign contributions from Mrs. Craven and from Mrs. Clara Soliday when they worked for him in 1947 and 1948. He has pleaded innocent.

MRS. MAC STARTS DAY OF REST WITH WORSHIP. While General Douglas MacArthur rested from the rigors of his "most hectic week" in his Waldorf-Astoria Hotel suite, his wife, Mrs. Jean MacArthur, thrilled a crowd of Sunday worshippers as she appeared with Col. Sid Huff, the General's senior aide, to attend services at St. James Episcopal Church on Madison avenue. The MacArthurs will leave New York on Thursday for Chicago, where another tumultuous reception awaits.

placing its load, had not yet completely freed from the shovel section. While ascending, the hook apparently caught on a flange of the section, jerking that end of it five feet sideways. Black was pinned upright about shoulder high between the section he was to work on and a completed section standing nearby.

The same crane which pinned him removed the section to free him. He suffered no burns as his welding torch in his hand was not turned on when he was pinned.

He was rushed to Marion City Hospital in an L. A. Axe and Sons ambulance. Hospital attendants today reported his condition as serious.

Black has worked at the Marion Power Shovel Co. plant about a year, coming here from the company's plant at Cambridge, O., when it closed.

War Brides Tell Of Nazi Bombing On Homeland

Two English war brides yesterday told the Pleasant Township Civil Defense organization of their experiences during Nazi bombing attacks against their homeland during World War II.

They were Mrs. Lucian Shenefield of Green Camp, a native of Leicester in England's industrial midlands, and Mrs. Scott McMurray, of 114½ North State street, a native of Southampton, England's largest south coast shipping port.

They described civil defense activities before and during the Battle of Britain when the German aerial assault reached its highest intensity.

C. E. Baseler, head of Pleasant Township Civil Defense Unit, was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers.

Forty air raid wardens, communications and other civil defense workers, attended the meeting which was held at Pleasant School at 2 p.m. yesterday.

Dr. Nancy Campbell Convicted of Kidnaping

ALBUQUERQUE, April 23—(AB)—Dr. Nancy Campbell, prominent Santa Fe woman doctor, has been sentenced to 10 to 15 years in prison for kidnaping a nine-year-old girl.

The 43-year-old physician and surgeon was released on $40,000 bond after her attorney, A. L. Zinn, said the case would be appealed to the state Supreme Court.

The district court jury took 55 minutes to convict Dr. Campbell Saturday after a six-day trial.

The jury rejected the defense plea that Dr. Campbell was insane last Nov. 10 when she kidnaped nine-year-old Linda Stamm.

U. S. Nuclear Fission Tests Near Climax

HONG KONG, April 23—(AP)—Senator Magnuson (D-Wash) said today the climax of the United States' nuclear fission tests in Mid-Pacific is scheduled "some time within the next week or so."

He declined to say whether a new type atom bomb is being tried, but added:

"It has to do with nuclear fission."

Magnuson said the test would climax a series the Atomic Energy Comission has been conducting "for the past 40 days."

The experiments are being conducted at the U. S. atomic proving ground at Eniwetok in the Marshall Islands.

Bomber Crash Kills 3 Ohio Guardsmen

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 23—(AP)—A twin-engine training bomber rammed into a rugged mountainside near here yesterday, killing three Ohio National Guardsmen.

The B-26 bomber was on a routine training flight from Lockbourne Air Base, near Columbus, to Newcastle, Del.

Lockbourne Air Base identified the victims as: 1st Lt. William F. Phelan of Newark, pilot. Staff Sgt. Robert W. Howman of Ashland, Cpl. Thomas E. Wilcox of Dayton.

The plane was attached to the 202nd Tow Target Flight Station at Lockbourne.

Chicago Plans Super Greeting For MacArthur

CHICAGO, April 23—(AP)—General MacArthur is coming to Chicago Thursday and the nation's second largest city is all set for a super welcome.

Soldier Field, the lake front open-air arena, was reserved yesterday for a mass civic reception Thursday night.

But the greeting will get underway in high style the moment the general's plane, "The Bataan," touches ground about noon at Midway airport. An official reception committee of 200 prominent citizens, including retired Generals Charles G. Dawes and Robert E. Wood, will be on hand.

Before heading for the downtown loop area and a formal parade, the general will be given military honors, including a 17-gun artillery salute by Fifth Army artillerymen, at the airport.

A crushing crowd of 3,000,000—about 75 percent of Chicago's population—is expected to take part in the mammoth celebration for the general, his wife, and their son, Arthur, 13.

MacArthur Sticks Close to Hotel

NEW YORK, April 23—(AP)—Paper work occupied Gen. Douglas MacArthur today, but his wife and son looked forward to an afternoon at the circus.

The general, following his mammoth reception Friday, has remained in seclusion at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, his military secretary, said yesterday that MacArthur had no plans for today and probably would remain inside.

Whitney said the general was busy over the weekend reading newspapers and doing undisclosed "paper work." MacArthur reportedly has 15,000 congratulatory telegrams to wade through.

No visitors were received yesterday Whitney said. MacArthur on Saturday called on former president Herbert Hoover, who also lives at the Waldorf Astoria.

Aides said the 20-minute call was a "courtesy visit" but they gave no report on the conversation.

Economy

jobs would be spread over a 12-month period, you can figure on only about half that amount in the first year.

In addition to saving money, Jensen claimed the personnel reduction plan would promote efficiency because employes already in departments would know they have a chance to get better jobs when they become vacant.

The pay roll cutting drive was started in the House last week when a bill was passed financing the labor department and the federal security administration for the next fiscal year. At Jensen's insistence the House wrote into the bill, 206 to 145, a provision prohibiting the filling of more than 25 percent of vacancies next year except by transfers within agencies.

Jensen said he will offer a similar amendment to the $520,066,500 Interior Department appropriation bill on which the House starts working today.

Missing License Leads to Arrest On Hit-Skip Charge

A wayward license plate proved the undoing of a hit-skip driver, police reported.

Robert L. Parmer, 25, of near Waldo was arrested at 11:15 a.m. yesterday at his home by a Marion police officer and a sheriff's deputy after a license plate which had been issued to him was found at the scene of an accident. He was charged with leaving the scene of an accident.

Police said Parmer's car first struck a parked car near Prospect and West Center streets driven by James M. Levering, 16, of near Prospect at 2:45 a.m. Sunday. Eight minutes later his car struck a parked car on South Prospect street owned by Cyrile Wise of 495 South Prospect street. Both cars were damaged.

Parmer was lodged in city prison overnight and will have a hearing this afternoon. He has made no plea to the charge as yet.

Cars driven by William C. Marks, 28, of 136 McWilliams court and Donald A. Meddles, 17, of 896 South Prospect street collided at Main and Center streets at 8:22 p.m. Sunday. Police reported minor damage.

Wife of Pennsylvania Governor Dies

PHILADELPHIA, April 23—(UP)—Mrs. Helene Morgan Fine, 42, wife of Pennsylvania's governor John S. Fine, died early today in University Hospital following a second major brain operation.

"Better make a note now to watch for the opening date of that New Kroger Store located at 272 South Prospect Street!"

Ex-Alabama Senator, Al Smith Foe, Dies

LAFAYETTE, Ala., April 23—(AP)—J. Thomas "Cotton Tom" Heflin, former U. S. senator and one of Alabama's most stormy political figures, died at his home here yesterday. He was 82.

The former senator and congressman, whose political career ended in 1930 after his break with the Democratic party two years earlier over the presidential nomination of Al Smith, had been in declining health for several years.

Funeral services will be held here Tuesday, at 11 a. m. (C.S.T.)

Hot Exhaust Pipe Sets Fire To Truck Cab

A truck driven and owned by John Morris of Fountain street sustained an estimated $200 damage at 11:25 p.m. Saturday when an overheated exhaust pipe set fire to the cab. The truck was stuck in the mud at Dennison and Lexington avenues and the exhaust overheated while the driver was attempting to get it out.

The fire was put out by firemen from West Center street fire station who were called to the scene.

Children playing with matches set fire to a pile of old ties and an old wooden fence along the Erie tracks at the rear of the Marion Lumber Co. yard at 200 Oak street at 2:05 p.m. Saturday, Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt reported. Firemen from Central Fire Station put the blaze out. Damage was negligible.

Firemen from Central Fire Station were summoned to the home of Erlie Kutz, 59, of 120 South High street at 11:07 p.m. last night. Upon arrival they found Mr. Kutz suffering from an acute attack of bronchial asthma. They applied inhalator treatment under the guidance of his family physician for 20 minutes with marked success.

DETROIT, April 23—(AP)—Detroit's production of cars and military vehicles was slowed today by a strike that cleared the streets of all city buses and streetcars.

cars. Although all the operators have been off the job since early Saturday morning, the full impact of the strike was not felt until today. The auto industry's "big three" producers reported early absenteeism up to 20 percent compared with a normal for Monday of four to six percent.

Simmons of Missoula, Mont., joined later by another daughter, Miss Viola Simmons of Chicago, for the weekend. They were guests of Dr. J. B. Holloway, pastor of Trinity Church, and Mrs. Holloway.

Taft To Fight Truman Plan On Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON, April 23—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) says he's "going to fight" President Truman's plan to give the State Department top control over all foreign aid programs.

And he told a reporter yesterday he doesn't think Congress will agree with the plan either. The White House said April 18 that Mr. Truman soon would outline to Congress a program for coordinating foreign economic and security assistance within the State Department.

The Test will come when Mr. Truman asks Congress for an expected $11,000,000,000 for foreign aid, including the Marshall plan, military help for anti-Soviet allies and the "Point Four" program for under-developed areas of the world.

The plan to group these under State Department direction does not require congressional approval unless it is asked in the appropriations bill or as an authorization. Even so, Congress through its purse-string controls could nullify the plan or circumvent it by provisions in the bill granting or denying the funds.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK

SOME OF THE regular guests couldn't come because they were slightly decapitated or had had a previous engagement with the embalmer. You know the boys. Cockeye Dunn, who got himself electrocuted, courtesy of the state; Joe Butler, shot down in front of that big 34th Street hotel because he was just a little greedy over control of the waterfront loading on a pier or two; "Farmer" Sullivan, ex-pug and rum-runner, mowed down by an old fashioned machine gun; Leo Tocci, stabbed to death on a Miami beach; and, of course, that unfortunate waterfront union enterpriser, Charlie Yanowsky, slashed to death on the wharves where his rats ran so free.

Victor Riesel

No, the boys couldn't come as they always did to this particular annual banquet and get their pictures snapped with the guest of honor. Yet this year it was a prayer soup sling than ever before because last Saturday night, at that 42nd Street hostelry, the clambake really was in the nature of a going-away party for the Kefauver Committee. That is to say the party was real groovy because the good Senator had left this city's television lenses weeks before, never to return because his committee was finished.

But don't get the idea that the boys' places were empty. Their successors were there. Obviously this "Annual Dinner-Dance of the Joseph P. Ryan Assn." was a sell-out. For none of us newspapermen could buy a ticket to this feed in honor of Joseph P. Ryan, president-for-life of the A.F.L. Longshoremen's Association.

All seats were taken—you can bet—for the place was jammed with police commissioners, judges, chief magistrates, district attorneys, Tammany braves and their chief, Carmine De Sapio, who has an acquaintanceship with one of Tammany's regular contributors, man by the name of Frankie Costello. There was even a former president of the New York Stock Exchange.

THERE IS THE ANSWER to the question, asked of me almost daily during last month's 10,000 mile junket, criss-crossing this nation "What's happening in your city now that Kefauver's exposed the links between crime and politics?"

Nothing's happening. Just nothing. That Senate hearing was one fine television show. And that's all you get, you wonderful people.

Just imagine what occurred Saturday night. Only the innocent, the babes in arms, and the blind are unaware that the gathering of the Joseph P. Ryan Assn., though a legal assemblage of waterfront labor men, is, and always has been, a social steambath for the toughest waterfront crowd in the world—albeit most of them got the old tux out of last year's newspapers and looked like other cash customers that night at that big hotel.

FROM THE OLD seating lists of the Joseph P. Ryan Assn. affairs, you can pick a roster of dead characters thrust into their lead-filled eternity by the state or by private torpedoes for crimes against society or the mob itself. It's simply part of New York's folklore that this annual hootenanny has drawn the men responsible for the nation's waterfront labor rackets—which the Kefauver committee will soon say is responsible for all other intricately interwoven corruption.

This will be traced by the senator's men to the duty imposed on truckers for hauling stuff off the piers—a private tax running to $100,000,000 a year at least. Not to mention the utterly untraceable "take" from the sideline rackets which may hit half a million. All this in just one big town, mind you.

Okay, it's so big, it's so respectable that no force can rip it out of the social structure. Okay, we can even understand the argument (and loathe it) that some control is needed in a city where 40,000 longshoremen seek 20,000 available jobs each day. But why, after the Kefauver committee finally aroused the public against it, do the city's highest officials go to a banquet which is the gathering of the wharf clans—and lend it respectability?

WHY DID POLICE Commissioner Murphy, Mayor Impelliterri and Chief Magistrate John Murtagh permit Table 5 to be put aside for them? They are national figures now and have a responsibility far beyond a mere municipality, big as New York is.

Why did the judges and the district attorneys come to sit at tables alongside of the Anastasios, alongside the families of men who have records going back to the smuggling of aliens 40 years ago? Why did they sit alongside big Ed Florio, the Jersey waterfront union leader who mocked the U. S. Senate? He told its crime committee that in 30 years on the docks he hadn't seen a bookie take a bet and that grenade explosions in union headquarters there were just fire-craker stuff coming out of a slight argument among the boys.

It was a good try, Senator Kefauver, but how were you to know that some of our best people go to our worst banquets.

LaRue P.-T.A. Elects Officers

LARUE, April 21—The F.F.A. and F.H.A. of LaRue High School presented the program at a meeting of the P.-T.A. Monday. During the business meeting the officers for the coming year were elected and an auditing committee appointed.

Mrs. Ivan Cooper was elected president, Mrs. Lenore Evans, first vice president, Mrs. Lenole Parish, second vice president, and Paul Wise, third vice president. Warren Lauther was elected secretary, and Mrs. Roland McElheny treasurer. It was announced that the May meeting would be the annual program honoring the eighth grade. The P.T.A. voted to purchase 16 new chairs for the typing room, Richard Granlee and Mr. Wise to make the purchase.

For the program the F.F.A., under the direction of Dale Rausch, illustrated routine parliamentary procedure. A trumpet solo was played by Bruce Kramp accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sheldon Kramp. A style review followed in which 21 members of the F.H.A. styled costumes made during the school year in home economics classes. The show was entitled "The Girl in the Frame", and was directed by Mrs. Lena Gillespie, instructor. Background music was played by Martha Bess Hoagland, pianist.

Employment On Rise In Marion Area

Employment levels in Marion's 47 major industrial and commercial firms continued to climb with an additional 80 workers hired during the period from mid-February to mid-March.

The addition of these workers brought the level of employment in these firms to 23 percent above a year ago and brought to 1,050 the total of workers added to the work force of these concerns.

This was reported in the analysis of the local labor market released today by the Ohio State Employment Service's Marion office.

A survey just completed by the O.S.E.S. here disclosed local firms hope to add another 900 workers by May 15. Transportation and utility employers will need about 700 more workers for defense-connected work and manufacturers of non-electrical machinery anticipate hiring 125 more persons.

Hiring levels would be higher now if qualified workers had been available, the employment service reported.

Skilled mechanical draftesmen, machinists, tool and die makers, sheet metal workers, molders, layout men and operators of boring mills, planers, screw machines, engine and turret lathes and milling machines are needed. Women typists and stenographers are also needed.

Job opportunities are plentiful for qualified persons.

Unemployment compensation claims dropped from 225 in February to 205 in March, the employment office reported.

City of Beauty

By Inez Robb

SAN FRANCISCO

ALL GOOD Americans go to Paris when they die, but would like to make advance arrangements for four months out of the twelve in San Francisco.

For as long as I can remember, I have been carrying on a violent affair with this jewel of the commonwealth, this peerless pearl of the Pacific.

What has Paris got that San Francisco lacks, except a 1900 year head start and, possibly, the Eiffel Tower, the Tour D'Argent and Mlle. Josephine Baker. And I believe San Francisco is even getting Josephine on Miss Baker's current tour.

Inez Robb

In addition, everyone here speaks English and it is possible to get a cup of American coffee and eggs sunny-side-up without any argument and the taxi drivers seem animated by no homicidal intent.

MIND YOU NOW, I have every intention of going to Paris, post-mortem, but only on a part-time basis: three months in Paris, three in Venice, three in Marrakech (at the foot of the Atlas mountains in French Morocco) and three in San Francisco.

This is the most fascinating and beautiful city in the Western Hemisphere, and I am in no mood to entertain any outraged squeals of protest from such outlying districts as New Orleans, Quebec, Victoria, Rio de Janiero, Buenos Aires, Santiago or Charleston, either S. C. or W. Va.

As one comes across the bay from Oakland on the old ferry boats, San Francisco in the sun is a gleaming white city rising tier by tier on her many hills, like Algiers rising out of the Mediterranean.

It is a city in which every prospect pleases and even man doesn't seem quite as vile as usual. This is a city presiding over one of the greatest natural harbors in the world, rivalled only by Rio and Sydney and Seattle.

MAN HAS ONLY to lift up his eyes to see the green hills across the bay from the city and to look down to see the waters in between, spanned by two of the most spectacular bridges in the world.

It is a city of almost a million persons who live in homes perched on hills that only a goat or a cable car can climb. And it is one of the world's few large cities in which the inhabitants look out upon gardens, flowers, green hills and blue waters—providing there isn't a fog. And only unfriendly people mention them.

This is a city in which there are hedges of calla lilies, which grow like weeds, walls covered with climbing roses the size of dinner plates, California poppies and lupines in every crevice and violets for 20-cents a bunch at flower stalls that have been at the same street corners as long as I can remember.

"Just to show you what inflation has done to the country, the violets used to be 5 cents a bunch when I came here as a child with my mother. And the roses are now two dozen for 75 cents, instead of 25, the fourth part of a dollar).

I NEVER COME to San Francisco but that I make a pilgrimage up Telegraph Hill after dark to pleasure my soul with one of the most spectacular night panoramas in the world.

Then the land and the water are sharply separated in the jet of night; the myriad lights on shore and the black expanse of the water in which Alcatraz and Treasure Island are anchored like sturdy battleships, and across that water lie two vast necklaces of lights, outlining the bridges that are spider webs by day.

Looking west from Telegraph Hill is the brilliantly lighted expanse of Nob Hill and the city's beautiful sky-line. And across the water, embedded like jewels in a velvet box, are the gleaming cities of Richmond, Oakland and Berkeley.

It is like fairyland, and the lucky, lucky people who call San Francisco home can see this incomparable sight any old time just by driving up Telegraph Hill.

Come to think of it, scratch Paris and make it six months in San Francisco.

Business Slumps

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

THE firing of General Douglas MacArthur has had one unusual impact on the American economy. It has made it harder for a man to make a living impersonating Harry S. Truman.

This is on the word of Irving Fisher, 66, probably the President's most successful stage double. For more than five years Fisher, a veteran actor, has kept the wolf from his door by portraying Truman in Broadway shows and at club and convention entertainments.

HAL BOYLE

But the MacArthur episode—a big political headache to the President—is a bigger pain in the pocketbook to his double.

"This whole fuss is murdering me," complained Fisher.

His chief beef since the dismissal of General MacArthur no organized on any longer seems to want to pay money to see him give his funny imitations of Truman.

FISHER CURRENTLY portrays the President in a brief walk-on finale in "Call Me Madam," a musical starring Ethel Merman as a lady diplomat. Ordinarily he also averages about eight outside club dates a month in the same role.

"But every outside job I had has disappeared," Fisher lamented. "Every booking I had clear up to next June has been cancelled in the last few days. What's happened to the country's sense of humor anyway?"

The fact he himself is a lifelong Republican makes the situation only more ironic to him. If a Republican no longer can earn a living by imitating a Democrat, how confused can the times get? What can a man count on?"

"My family has been Republicans for generations," he sighed. "Why, my Grandfather Fisher used to live next door to Abraham Lincoln out in Illinois.

"I guess it just goes to show that there really is no business quite like show business."

AND ANOTHER THING. The audience used to break out in surprised applause when he strode out on the stage, smiling and gesturing like President Truman.

"Now," said Fischer, "the ladies siss me. You know, ladies don't hiss—they siss. Like this—sssssss. And the men? A lot of them boo me."

When he walked along Broadway, many strangers—startled at his strong facial resemblance to the President—used to smile and give him a friendly, "Hi Harry!" Not so much today.

They shout, "Why did you fire Mac?" and they demand, "What are you guys trying to do down in Washington anyway?"

"I can't understand it," said Fisher. "The things they say—why, you'd think I really was Harry."

THE ACTOR HAS impersonated the President so long he always calls him by his first name. He first casually imitated Truman in a circus Saints and Sinners show more than five years ago.

"Nobody ever even had mentioned before that I look like him," he recalled. "But that's all I've been doing in the theater ever since."

Incidentally, impersonating Harry S. Truman has grown into a small but steady industry.

"I know at least three or four other men who look more like him," Fisher said modestly. "But I have the ability to make myself look like him."

This came as the result of a painstaking study of the Truman facial movements and gestures.

"I've got all his mannerisms down pat—his choppy movement of the left hand, his grin, his jaunty walk," said Fisher. "He's got something of a bigger stomach than I have. So I just stick out my stomach and walk semi-stiff-legged. That's Harry.

"HE'S SURE OF HIMSELF. Right or wrong, he's sure of himself."

Fisher sighed again and said wistfully:

"That's a good way to be. But right now Harry has knocked the props out from under me."

He feels everything will be all right again when the MacArthur controversy dies down. But he wishes his fellow Republicans would quit talking about impeaching Harry Truman.

"What are they trying to do—ruin my business entirely?" he said. "You can't make a career out of impersonating an unemployed President."

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Child Born With Club Foot

Many children are born with clubfoot, a condition in which the feet turn inward to such a degree that the child is forced to walk on the side rather than on the bottom of the foot.

Fortunately, treatment is fairly simple and, if it is begun within a few weeks of birth, the difficulty can be overcome in nearly all cases Its success depends on the fact that an infant's tissues are soft and malleable so that, with patience, the foot can gradually be molded into the proper position

A recently suggestive treatment uses nothing more than moleskin adhesive, flannel bandages, ordinary adhesive tape, and skill on the part of the physician Three adhesive straps put on over the foot and around the heel, are carried upward over the knee and then down again to the middle of the calf With these straps, the foot is forced into the normal position or the position of the foot is overcorrected to a slight degree

After the straps have been put on the baby is observed for a period of one-half to one-hour to make sure they do not interfere with the circulation If the toes turn blue or white, the straps must be loosened The parents also are instructed to watch the toes for blueness or pallor and to report any such signs to the physician at once Nevertheless, it is still important for the physician to observe the patient the following day just to be sure the straps are not too tight.

About two days after the original strapping, which has been covered by a flannel bandage, ordinary adhesive tape is put over the flannel bandage in the same way as the original strapping This aids in further correcting the condition Each week thereafter the bandage strapping is removed and reapplied Usually from three to six weeks are enough to bring the foot into an overcorrected position

Now and then the moleskin adhesive may irritate the skin In such cases, it must be removed and only flannel bandages used until the skin is healed

Once the position of the foot is corrected, the strapping is repeated every two weeks and then finally once a month By the fourth or fifth month the baby may be permitted to go without any strapping for several days at a time

When the youngster begins to walk, the strapping is entirely discontinued and corrective shoes are employed The feet must be examined at intervals just to make sure the condition does not return

Former Galion School Head In New Post

O. E. Hill Named Superintendent At Cleveland Heights

Special to The Star

GALION, April 23—Of interest here is the advancement of O. E. Hill, former superintendent of Galion schools to the superintendency at Cleveland Heights public schools. He has been awarded a three-year contract at Cleveland Heights.

For the past eight years he has held a similar position at Upper Arlington. Hill was the only candidate to whom the position was offered following a survey of 75 school administrators. He will receive an initial salary of $11,500 with an increase of $500 a year until it reaches $13,500. He succeeds Frank L. Wiley who has held the position for 28 years and will continue in another capacity until his retirement in two years.

Mr. Hill came to Galion from Carroll, Fairfield County, in 1934 as principal of the Junior High school. He became superintendent two years later and served five years before his appointment as assistant state director of education Sept. 9, 1941. He is 46 years of age. He and his wife, Beatrice, have three daughters, Betty, a Lakewood teacher; Alice Mae, a junior at Ohio State University, and Linda Lee, a pupil at Upper Arlington.

Sokolsky

principle that in mobilizing the resources of this continent each country should provide the other with the defense articles which it is best able to produce, and, above all produce quickly, and that production programs should be coordinated to this end."

A joint board of defense had been established in 1940 of which, it may be recalled, Fiorello LaGuardia was a member. On Feb. 12, 1947, the United States and Canada agreed that the joint board of defense should be continued in the post-war period. The official statement said:

"... In the interest of efficiency and economy each government has decided that its national defense establishment shall, to the extent authorized by law, continue to collaborate for peacetime joint security purposes . . ."

ON JUNE 11, 1947, President Truman, speaking at Ottawa, said:

"The permanent joint board on defense will continue to function. I wish to emphasize, in addition to the word permanent, the other two parts of the title. The board is joint, being composed of representatives of each country. Canada and the United States participate on the basis of equality, and the sovereignty of each is carefully respected. This was true during the gravest days of the war and it will continue to be true, in keeping with the nature of all our joint undertakings."

What Lester Pearson's statement amounts to is that the United States is further isolated. Who are our allies, our friends? Since 1938, patriotic American citizens have been attacked and smeared and abused and called "isolationists," for political advantage. These men never sought isolation for the United States. What they sought was a strong, prepared, independent country that never compromised on its right of choice—choice as to allies, choice as to time and place of defense and attack, choice to make its own decisions.

Under the management of Dean Acheson, we have lost all that. We are becoming bogged down with United Nations compromises. Even Canada goes back on us. Even Canada announces, through its foreign minister, that it joins with the countries that having accepted America's friendship and bounty, turn on us in the moment of our danger. We have indeed become isolationist by the Acheson-Truman diplomacy.

Meet the Man with the Big Job on his Hands

Yes, he's your Sohio serviceman.

In this man's hands and his head and his heart rests the welfare of much of Ohio's private transportation system . . . your car and, perhaps, the one next door, and a large part of the other two million like it.

Normally, the job he does in caring for your car is important to you because he can save you hundreds of dollars in the course of its life.

Today, that job is more important to you—and to all of us—because it may determine whether you have private transportation in the future . . . whether we as a community can operate in the event of crisis or extended emergency.

Now, as always, Sohio is backing these men with everything. The best lubricants and other products we can produce or obtain . . . the latest of service information straight from the men who make cars . . . every kind of training and encouragement . . . every needed tool and piece of equipment we can lay our hands on.

But all of this is of no avail unless you say "yes" when this man asks to take care of your car. The finest motor oil in the world won't do its job unless it's in your crankcase. The best grease gun is useless to protect your car unless you will take time enough to get it on the lift.

So . . . for your own sake . . . next time he asks, say "Yes"! It's a big job and an important job . . . and he wants to do it for you!

You can count on
SOHIO
. . . first in making your car last!

This spring, these hands will give new life and improved safety to $2,000,000,000 worth of Ohio cars!

P.U.C.O. Sets Bucyrus Rate Hearing May 3

Telephone Company, City To Air Formal Protests

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, April 23 — The Ohio Public Utilities Commission will hold a formal hearing May 3, in Columbus on the double-barreled problem of the proposed rate increase sought by the Bucyrus Telephone Co. and the charges of poor telephone service made by the city, Mayor Frank P. Sitler disclosed here today.

The city requested a formal hearing about two weeks ago after a report by commission engineers indicated a rate increase for the company would be considered favorable by the commission.

City officials, led by Councilman C. Victor Vollrath, have been waging a campaign against the telephone company ever since last September when the company filed a formal application for an overall rate increase of about 20 percent for its 4,400 subscribers here and at Chatfield.

Mayor Sitler said efforts will be made to have a representative delegation of private citizens, including manufacturers and merchants, present at the hearing along with most of the city's official family.

In the preliminary report of commission engineers, the suggested increase was not broken down to individual monthly bills. It indicated an increase on the company's rate of return on its investment from its present 2.83 percent to 3.36 percent.

At the same time, the report pointed out six deficiencies in existing service and outlined methods of overcoming these service defects.

Betsy Ross Auxiliary Endorses Bond Issue

Endorsement of the school bond issue was made Friday afternoon by members of the Betsy Ross Auxiliary to Marion Camp 32, Spanish-American War Veterans. Devotions were conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. Hattie Richards, assisted by Mrs. Edna Shetterly.

For the program an article was read by Mrs. Ida Longshore on the organization of the auxiliary. At the next meeting plans have been made for a white elephant sale.

Following the business session a contest was held with Mrs. Mabel Poulin as winner.

NEW WONDER ELECTRONIC EAR HIDES DEAFNESS

CHICAGO, ILL. (Special)—A fabulous new electronic ear which miraculously conceals deafness was revealed by an eminent Chicago acoustical scientist.

In an exclusive interview with the Business Research Associates, he disclosed that "through the miracle of modern electronics it is now possible for millions of hard of hearing to recapture their loss without a button showing in either ear."

In a remarkable demonstration he showed how his tiny revolutionary electronic discovery has rendered old style hearing aids obsolete.

Pointing out that his invention gives new hope to those who have heretofore refused to wear a hearing aid with a conspicuous ear button or head-band, he said that "this electronic ear transmits even whispers with startling clarity."

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with this new wonder discovery which hides deafness, full details will be sent in a plain wrapper without obligation to anyone who requests it. Address: Electronic Research Director, 711C, Beltone Building, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill. A penny postcard will do.

Area G.I. Pilot Hitting Red Supplies in Korea

Capt. Forrest D. Midlam, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Midlam of near Marion, recently took part in six Fifth Air Force fighter missions against Communist troops and supply concentrations during a week-long aerial operation in Korea.

An F-51 Mustang pilot with the 35th Fighter Interceptor Wing, Capt. Midlam aided in the destruction of Red supplies and rolling stock deep in enemy territory, headquarters, Far East Air Force, reported today.

On one flight, he and another fighter pilot discovered four enemy vehicles upset in a roadside ditch. Close inspection of the vehicles, however, showed them to be in excellent condition.

Set All Aflame

The pilots noticed supplies lashed to the truck beds. They made a strafing and napalm pass and set all four aflame.

Capt. Midlam stated, "They sure burned like mad after a short burst."

Earlier in the week, Capt. Midlam worked with an air controller in the Kumhwa area to rocket and machine gun camouflaged supply dumps and warehouses. On the same mission, the two Mustang pilots destroyed one locomotive and damaged a locomotive turntable.

He also participated in air attacks against North Korean villages which were supply storage points or troop living places during the day. More than 35 buildings and several vehicles were destroyed in the attacks.

33 Missions

Since his arrival with the 35th Fighter Interceptor Wing, Capt. Midlam has flown 33 combat missions with the Fifth Air Force unit.

Capt. Midlam is a graduate of Claridon High School. He entered the Air Force in April, 1942 and served with the Eighth Air Force in Europe for 18 months. He was a P-47 pilot during World War II.

Following his discharge, he reenlisted and after additional training was sent to Tokyo. Among his military decorations are the Bronze Star, Air Medal, Distinguished Flying Cross, six campaign stars and a Presidential Unit citation.

The Marion pilot is married to the former Miss Frances Kelley of Columbus, Ga. They are parents of a four-year-old son, Steven, and a daughter, Suzanne, born last January in Tokyo. Mrs. Midlam and the two children are making their home in Japan.

HOSTESS TO CIRCLE

Mrs. E. W. Warwick was hostess for a meeting of Circle 6 of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church Thursday, April 12, at her home on Hane avenue. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Glenmore Hawkins. For the program, Mrs. J. H. Andrews reviewed the last chapter of the study book, "The Near East Panorama." Mrs. Otto Schlientz was a guest.

Teachers To Tour Plants

Industry-Education Day Event Planned

Marion public and parochial school teachers have been invited to tour several Marion industrial plants by the Manufacturers Council and Industrial Leaders Conference of the Chamber of Commerce. The visit is set for May 14.

It has been arranged as part of Industry-Education Day. There is to be no school on that day.

Visits are planned to Marion Industries, the Fulfillment Corp., Huber Co., and the Arro Expansion Bolt Co. Luncheon will be served at Moira Hall. The purpose of the day is to provide an opportunity for the teachers to observe industry in action.

Don Howard is general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Phil Brown is in charge of transportation. R. G. Haldeman is in charge of publicity, and R. T. Mason is to procure a speaker. Robert O'Connell and F. R. Jones are in charge of luncheon arrangements. The speaker will be announced later.

Mad Hatters Lead Cookie Fashion Parade

THE fashionable cookie wears a hat to parties this year. Gumdrops and sugar icing as trimmings plus imagination on the part of the cook transform the usual party fare into a model of the latest in spring headgear.

These Mad Hatter cookies will be especially appealing to children and yet are appropriate enough for special occasions. They present a surprise in taste, too—aUs UUlso-tnAost Chocolate, pecan halves and chewy coconut are included in the ingredients to make them good tasting as well as good looking.

MAD HATTER COOKIES

1 2/3 cups enriched flour, sifted
½ t double-acting baking powder
¼ t salt
½ cup butter or shortening
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 egg
1 t vanilla
1 cup coconut
1/3 cup chocolate syrup
24 pecan halves

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter; add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Blend in egg and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients; blend well. Divide dough in half. Roll out each half on floured board to 12 by 9-inch rectangle. Cut into 12 three-inch squares. Combine coconut and chocolate syrup. Place a teaspoonful in center of each square and top with a pecan half. Draw up four corner of dough to overlap center; round with fingers. Brush with melted butter, then sprinkle with sugar. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderaate oven (350 F.) 10 to 12 minutes. While still hot, form a crown on each piece with fingers or back of spoon. Decorate with gumdrops and sugar icing. Makes 2 dozen cookies.

ENDORSE BOND ISSUE

The school bond issue was endorsed by members of the Marion Lodge 51, Knights of Pythias, when they met Friday night at the K. of P. Hall.

Muster Day Program Held

Spanish-American War Veterans Meet

Annual "Muster Day" services were conducted by Marion Camp 32, Spanish-American War Veterans, when they met Friday night in the Legion Dugout. The celebration was in commemoration of the first Muster Day on April 21, 1898 when war was declared with Spain.

Preceding the ceremony, a dinner was held by members of the camp and Betsy Ross Auxiliary. Guest speakers included Earl N. Hale, who spoke on the objectives of the organization, and outlined the qualities and characters of Presidents McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt; Col. R. E. Copeland, who spoke on the aims and principles of the Spanish American War Veterans since their inauguration 53 years ago, and Col. T. E. Andrews who sketched the history of the camp. Col. Andrews was first commander of the Marion camp in 1904.

For the program S/Sgt. Darwin A. Lilly and Pfc. T. H. Turner of the Army and Air Force Recruiting Station showed movies of Japan.

During the dinner Walter Melby, president of the Marion Camp, presented Elmer Bondley with a birthday cake, containing 77 candles, in commemoration of his birthday, which was Tuesday. Mr. Bondley has served as adjutant for the past 39 years.

Why try to SAVE NOW?

Today, despite higher taxes and higher living costs, we are being asked to step up our savings "to help stop inflation." Does this make sense?

Yes! Here's why:

Last year, after the Korean war started, the American people drew on their savings, to the extent of several billion dollars over and above their current income, to buy goods. In addition, they did more buying on credit than usual. This created an abnormal demand for the supply of goods available, and prices went up.

This demand is further increased now by the fact that more people are working and at increased wages. But the defense effort necessarily reduces the amount of consumer goods that can be bought. So to keep prices from going still higher, we must hold our buying down to normal needs by spending less—and saving more.

Price controls can help "hold the line" temporarily. But they can't cure Inflation because basically it is the increased income and our willingness to spend more that keeps pushing prices up.

If we cut out certain things, and buy only what we absolutely have to have right now, we help keep prices from rising further. What we don't spend we save, and thus build a reserve for ourselves and our families.

Saving more now is important to you—and to the country. Your savings are used in great part to help finance additional factories which will later on mean more goods for all of us. Our savings in this way help check Inflation.

* * * *

So it is important to save today—for our own future—as an aid to the defense effort—and as a definite check on Inflation.

5 more things that must be done to check Inflation:

1. Increase production: To meet military needs, provide civilian necessities, help keep prices down.

2. Cut non-military government expenditures: To provide money for vital military needs and to hold down, as much as possible, further borrowing and further tax increases.

3. Support taxes needed to put our Government on a "pay-as-you-go" basis.

4. Accept controls: To assure military materials and to keep prices down by reducing competition for these materials.

5. Buy only for real needs: We must prevent bidding against each other for scarce goods.

None of these things will be easy for any of us to do. But everybody will agree that it's worth sacrificing to prevent the Sixth Column Enemy—INFLATION—from bleeding our economy.

This message is one of a series on Inflation brought to you by the life insurance companies and their agents in the interest not only of keeping America strong but also in protecting the purchasing power of the dollars of the 83 million policyholders in this country today.

You can help check Inflation by doing your part and by letting your representatives in Government know that you support every action they take to check Inflation—the Sixth Column Enemy.

Prexies Exchange Cleats for Spikes

Harding Turns To Baseball After Spring Football Drills

Harding's gridiron coaching staff wound up spring football training Friday night and Saturday turned their attention to baseball.

Coach Pete Howison greeted some 40 diamond hopefuls at the stadium Saturday afternoon for the first practice.

Despite the late start for training session, the Prexies will open a six-game schedule with two games next week. Howison said. The squad opens tomorrow at Galion and travels to Lima Wednesday.

Six Lettermen

Pete was greeted by six returning lettermen at the opening session. Jack Daum, hard-hitting first baseman, and Don Ellison, flashy shortstop, were returning from last year's club. Howison's outfield prospects are very bright with the return of three monogram winners, Jim Condron, Jim Kennell and Tom McClain have all returned to the lineup. McClain also was used as a hurler. Only other returning letterman is Jim Edgington, ace hurler from the 1950 staff.

In addition to the six regular games, the Prexies will take part in the district tournament at Ohio State University next month. Drawings for the tourney, set for May 5, will be held Tuesday at Columbus.

Howison and his assistants, George Keel, Howard Thomas and John Luginbuhl, put away the grid togs with satisfaction after Friday night's closing scrimmage of the spring session.

Impressed

Observers at the sessions were impressed by the spirit shown by the grid aspirants during the four-week grind. Howison admitted the boys had been "playing pretty rough" and expressed satisfaction over prospects for next year.

A lot of rough edges remain, Howison said, but freshmen who will make up next year's sophomore talent have received instruction on the type of ball to play and should fit into the varsity grind smoothly next fall.

The entire coaching staff has expressed approval of the spring training and hope to make it a permanent fixture on the Harding grid program.

Toledo Sweeps Twinbill in A.A.

Toledo's surprising Mud Hens swept their first doubleheader of the American Association season Sunday to continue setting the pace with five wins in six states.

Before 4,328 home customers, the Hens blasted Minneapolis, 9-4, and 7-5, after a rain-delayed start and a finish under the lights. Toledo slammed across five runs in th seventh frame of the opener and had a big four-run blast in the fifth of the nightcap.

The fans were treated to a total of seven home runs—Dave Williams, Willie Mays, Dixie Howell and Mike Natisin for the Millers, and Don Lund, Bill Barnacle and George Lerchen for Toledo.

Another doubleheader sweep was scored by Milwaukee. The Brewers, taking over second place with 3-1, pushed Louisville into the basement with 6-4 and 5-4 triumphs.

At Indianapolis, the smallest Sunday crowd in more than 10 years—1,932 chilled fans—saw the Tribe split with Kansas City. The Blues took the opener, 6-1, while Indianapolis took a 2-1 nightcap decision.

St. Paul's doubleheader at Columbus was postponed by cold and rain.

Lopez Club Now Leads League Race

CLEVELAND, April 23—(AP)—Cleveland's new manager, Al Lopez, wanted his Indians to get off to a good start—and that they've done.

By beating the St. Louis Browns 10-3 and 4-3 yesterday, the Tribe rose to the top of the American League standing with five victories and one loss.

Idle today, Cleveland will send Bob Feller against the Chicago White Sox here tomorrow. Then come three more off-days.

Good pitching is responsible for the Indians' good start. Yesterday Early Wynn and Mike Garcia went full games, and in three of Cleveland's four previous victories the hurlers lasted the distance.

Game Delayed

When the first game got under way—10 minutes early because of threatening skies—a crowd of 13,932 was on hand. When the night-cap ended under lights six hours and 33 minutes later, about half of the fans already had departed. Rain held up the first game in the third inning for an hour and 19 minutes.

In copping the opener 10-3, Wynn got the benefit of the Tribe's best offensive of the season. Burly early chipped in with his share of the 10 hits—a pair of doubles. The victory was his second, and he yielded only seven hits and two walks.

Garcia, the Tribe's lone holdout this spring, flashed a fine fast ball in the nightcap. He struck out nine and was nicked for eight hits in his first start.

Given a first-inning lead of three runs, Garcia was pressed to hold it. After a shaky start in which the first five Indians got on base, Lou Sleater, a rookie southpaw, settled down to hold the Tribe to one run and five hits in the following eight innings.

Sleater gave three walks in that first frame, and his third pass forced in a run. Luke Easter singled home the first run of the rally and scored the third marker when Merrill Combs forced Larry Doby at second, with the bases full.

Garcia's single after Bob Kennedy's double in the third provided Cleveland its fourth and winning run.

In the opener St. Louis took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Berardino's double and Wood's single. Doubles by Hegan and Wynn and a single by Roberto Avila pushed the Indians in front 2-1 in the third, before the rain.

Three Stranded

Southpaw Stubby Overmire walked two batters to fill the bases, and Bill Kennedy came in to hurl for the Browns when the game was interrupted. After the rain Doby fanned and Bob Kennedy fouled to leave the three runners stranded.

Wood pounced a home run over the center field fence in the fourth to tie the score at 2-2, but the Tribe came back with three runs in its half of the inning to chase Kennedy off the hill. Wynn and Rosen each doubled in a run in this rally.

The game turned into a lopsided Cleveland conquest in the fifth when Irv Medlinger, a rookie southpaw, was clubbed for three more runs. The final Tribe tallies came on Larry Doby's two-run homer off Duane Pillette in the eighth.

Marsox In Light Workout Before Opener With Giants

Manager Elmer Yoter sent his Marion Red Sox through their first practice grind at Lincoln Park today in preparation for their Ohio-Indiana League opener against Springfield here tomorrow night.

Some 15 players arrived at Port Columbus by plane yesterday morning from Ocala, Fla., and were transported to Marion by private auto. Yesterday was spent in acquainting the Sox with their landlords for the new season.

During this morning's drills, the Sox were issued uniforms. Skipper Yoter will wind up training with a light workout tomorrow afternoon.

Marion will have an opportunity to meet the team personally tonight when Robert E. White, president of the club, holds an open house party at his cabin west of Marion on Route 30 tonight at 8. Refreshments will be served through the courtesy of the Marion baseball directors and no charge will be made.

18th "Fixer" Beign Held In Scandal

NEW YORK, April 23—(AP)—Authorities hinted strongly of new arrests in the widening basketball betting probe today holding in $50,000 bail a former Long Island University star described as the biggest fixer of all.

The 18th player or former player to be arrested in connection with the scandal is Jack Goldsmith, 31, a great set-shot star of the 1946 and 1947 LIU teams. He was arrested Saturday and charged with bribery.

"He is responsible for the corruption of more basketball players than any other single person," Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor said.

O'Connor made his statement to Magistrate William E. Prendergast yesterday in asking for an exceptionally high $100,000 bail.

"We have real concern for the safety of this man if he were allowed to go free on bail," O'Connor said. "The people associated with him know what he can give us."

Essential Key

O'Connor further described Goldsmith as an "essential key" in the probe "because of his underworld associations through the years."

The former LIU player is specifically accused of offering four LIU performers $3,500 to fix the game between LIU and Duquesne University at Madison Square Garden Jan. 1, 1949.

O'Connor said Goldsmith offered $1,000 each to Edward Gard, Nathan Miller and Louis Lipman and $500 to Richard Fuertado to arrange the point spread of that particular game. Duquesne won, 64-55.

Goldsmith had been hiding in various locations in the city ever since the scandal broke about two months ago, O'Connor said. The ex-star was described as a reticent, defiant witness.

"He is the sum of all that is wrong with the basketball picture in recent years," O'Connor added. "In Goldsmith we see all phases of corruption exemplified."

He said Goldsmith worked with several groups of fixers over a period of years but acted independently of Salvatore T. Sollazzo, the party-throwing jeweler who has been indicted on charges of bribing college players.

Don Laz, University of Illinois great pole vaulter, brushes over the bar at 15 feet, one and three-fourths inches to become the third man in history to vault 15 feet out of doors, during a triangular track and field meet with Michigan and Southern California at Los Angeles. Sign at bottom says 15 feet, two inches, but remeasurement showed the bar sagged one fourth inch.

Brooks Take Three Straight Over Rivals

By The Associated Press

You couldn't blame Leo (The Lip) Durocher for talking to himself today. The wonder is that the loquacious leader of the New York Giants has any speech left at all.

To say that Durocher came off second best in the much ballyhooed battle of wits with Charlie Dressen, his former first lieutenant at Brooklyn, is putting it mildly. The new Dodger pilot outmaneuvered and outgeneraled Leo at every turn over the weekend as the Brooks vanquished their mated rivals three straight at the Polo Grounds.

Last Straw

The final crushing blow—and the most humiliating—came yesterday when the Dodgers snatched a thriller victory from apparent certain defeat to whip the Giants 4-3 in 10 innings.

The triumph left the Dodgers in first place in the National League, a half-game in front of Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cubs. The Pirates defeated the Reds in Cincinnati 7-5, and the Cubs tripped the Cards, 10-5, in St. Louis. Philadelphia's Phils salvaged the last of a three game series with Boston, winning an uphill 6-5 victory.

Cleveland forged into the American League lead, sweeping a home doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns, 10-3 and 4-3. The Indians now have won five of six to hold a half-game edge over Washington and the Chicago White Sox. Rain washed out the scheduled game between the Senators and New York Yankees but the White Sox edged the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, in Chicago.

Boston's Red Sox pulled up to a .500 rating winning two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 7-4, at Fenway Park. They now have won three and lost as many.

Here is how Dressen stole the show from Durocher in the department most revered by Leo:

All Wilson had to do was tap the ball to right field and it probably would have been a home run. Right field in the Polo Grounds roams 345 feet to the bullpen. But Wilson, the southpaw who is a notorious opposite field hitter, tapped meekly back to the box and was an easy out. Wilson had played under Dressen in Oakland for two years. Durocher boiled.

On Saturday, Dressen sent up two pinch hitters against Larry Jansen in the seventh and both walked, forcing in the tying run. After the Dodgers routed Jansen in the eighth Dressen stole a page out of Durocher's book by ordering a squeeze bunt that brought in another Brooklyn run.

Dressen pulled the unexpected again yesterday using Don Newcombe in relief. The starter's ace, who was pasted by the Giants in a nine-inning win Friday, hurled three hitless and runless innings to notch his second triumph in three days. Durocher moved a batter purposely passed in the ninth hoping to get a pinch hitter for Newcombe. But Dressen crossed up his old sidekick again, allowing big Don to bat thus keeping him in the game.

Of earth's more than two-fifths of the land area of the earth, exclusive of the polar regions, was covered with primeval forest.

Plan Sulky Race Opening In Delaware

DELAWARE, April 21—(AP)—Grand Circuit harness racers will move into Delaware Fairgrounds for a four-day whirl at $100,000 in purses starting Tuesday, Sept. 18.

Joe Neville, chairman of the 1951 Delaware County fair speed committee, announced the program today.

The feature attraction for the sidewheelers will be the "Little Brown Jug" pace on Thursday, Sept. 20. Neville said a conservative estimate of the purse would be close to $65,000. Sixty-two top three-year-olds are eligible to try for the Jug on the half-mile track.

The entire program includes 12 stakes and four overnight events.

Opening day will feature the Delaware Gazette two-year-old trot and the Elks two-year-old pace, each for $5,000. Wednesday a $5,000 three-year-old trot for the "Old Oaken Bucket" will have top billing. Secondary to the Little Brown Jug race Thursday is the big five pace, with a $5,000 purse. The headliner for closing day, Friday, Sept. 21, will be the $5,000 big five trot.

Marion Pair Lead Keglers

Head Bowlers In Inter-City Tourney

Lallie Dutton and Mary Prior moved into first place in the Inter-City Bowling Tournament at the Palace Recreation Center over the weekend. The Marion pair posted a 1,222 total. Their actual pin count was 1,057 with the additional 165 handicap.

The Marion Rapid Transit squad remained at the top of the heap in the team event with a 2,854. Carrie Stagel of Youngstown, state president of the Women's Bowling Association, was present for the weekend sessions. Two weeks remain in the women's tourney which will be completed on May 6.

Records Not Good Enough For Harding

Harding Burress of Ohio's school record Saturday during the running of the Mansfield Relays but was able to garner only two points. Cleveland East Tech won the meet with 37 points while Lima Shawnee was second with 27.

The Bexley thinclads shattered the 880-yard relay record. Don Day, Jack Geiger, Jim Condron and Paul Geissler ran the distance in 1:34.4. The other record was set by the mile relay team. Paul Ludwig, John Ashworth, Dick Tway and Day who completed the run in 3:29.1. The time clipped four-tenths of a second from last year's mark.

The two points registered by the local runners were gained by the medley relay team which gained fourth place finish. The Prexy runners gave a good account of themselves as they ran their best race of the year.

Tway won in behind John Ashworth in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:03.1. Paul Geissler in the 220, 24.5. Don Day in the 440, 53.1, and Ted Price in the mile, 4:48.7.

Dick Lessig qualified for the finals in the shot put and posted a heave of 44 feet, 3¼ inches to finish sixth.

O-I League Rained Out

The weathermen won both of the Ohio-Indiana Baseball League openers scheduled for yesterday.

The Newark at Springfield and Richmond at Lima games both were postponed because of rain. Marion, the fifth team in the league, plays its first game Tuesday night.

Delay Opening Of Marion Speedway

Postponement of the opening date for auto races scheduled for the Marion Speedway, five miles north of Marion, was announced today by B & A. Enterprises, track promoters.

Originally scheduled to open April 29, the recent period of wet weather has hampered attempts to get the track into shape. The promoters announced that, since they promised fans one of the fastest quarter-mile tracks in the country, they would not try to run races on a track not in the best condition.

Opening race—a midget-car state championship race—will be held May 6, one week later than scheduled originally. The title race is sanctioned by the Tri-State Midget Association. After the May 6 opening races will be held every Sunday until October. Races start at 2:30 p. m.

Previously announced dates after May 6 will be the same—including the first big-car race in the history of the Marion track May 20. The track is one of only two quarter-mile tracks in the country sanctioned by the Racing Auto Car Enterprises, big-car racing promoters.

Meanwhile, 12 men are working to ready the track for opening day. Two grant road maintainers are busy banking and leveling the track and the stands are being repaired and repainted.

Play in County Baseball Tourney

Waldo pummelled Pleasant, 13-6, and Claridon defeated Caledonia, 12-5, Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Park in the Marion County Baseball tournament. New Bloomington had knocked Morral from the classic Friday with an 11-5 win.

Claridon will meet New Bloomington Tuesday afternoon at Lincoln Park. The winner of the title game Friday will participate in the district tournament at Columbus next month.

Activity was moderate and there appeared to be an inclination to follow the quiet pace of last week. Only a couple of sizable blocks of stock showed up at the opening.

A block of 2,000 shares of General Motors went at $53.12, down 25 cents, and 1,000 U. S. Steel changed hands at 34¼, down 12 cents.

The advances included Southern Pacific, General Electric, Baltimore and Ohio, Standard Oil of California and U. S. Rubber.

Equally small losses included Du Pont, Standard Oil (N. J.), Bethlehem Steel, Radio Corp. and Marine Midland.

Ohio Probers Hear Ex-Reds

COLUMBUS, April 23—(AP)—A legislative committee investigating subversives called on four former Communists today to tell about party activities in Ohio.

The Senate-House committee asked the quartet to testify at the group's fourth open hearing. The committee is looking for the best way to curb Reds in the state.

All four witnesses are from Toledo. Committee counsel Sidney Isaacs, a former FBI agent, said they agreed to appear voluntarily and name party members they know.

One of the witnesses is William G. Cummings, former FBI undercover agent in the party. His testimony helped convict the 11 top Communists in the New York trial. He will dwell on Ohio Red activities, Isaacs said.

The other three witnesses have no governmental connections, Isaacs said they had quit the Communist party and were willing to testify to help the legislative inquiry.

He didn't name them. He said they feared advance publicity on the appearance might expose them to threats to prevent testimony.

The hearing opens the 17th week of the legislative session. Senators and representatives begin work tonight.

In Fair Condition After Cutting Self

Chester Spears, 32, of the Ideal Hotel is in "fair" condition in the Marion City Hospital today after cutting his throat with a razor at about 8:45 a. m. today, police reported.

Police said Spears was found in his bed at 9 a.m. today by Hotel Manager George H. Carpenter. He had been bleeding about 15 minutes and was unconscious. He was rushed to the hospital in a Hughes ambulance. He did not cut a major blood vessel, it was reported. He was admitted to the hospital.

Mrs. Carpenter told police Spears had been despondent for some time. He was not employed and had lived at the hotel for about three weeks.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Shucks, all MacArthur has to do is wait this thing out and his phone will be ringing again.

He's been in service so long that he has even served under Republican presidents, and, with the two-term limitation even the Democrats have to go through the chair faster.

For an old soldier who is "fading away" he looks more publicly durable than the fellow who tried to fade him.

And what a parade New York gave him . . . the last man just came down off a lamp post this morning.

He said he didn't particularly want to stay up there, but it took the crowd in his block that long to get unwelded.

The Jury: AMERICA'S CIGARETTE SMOKERS

The Verdict: MORE PEOPLE SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

After all the Mildness tests, Camel leads by still more billions!

American smokers have been urged from every side: "Test and compare for mildness. You make the decision." They've made the quick tests, the trick tests and the thorough, sensible 30-day Camel mildness test.

Celebrated actress MARTHA TILTON says: "You've heard about the 30-Day Camel mildness test? Well, I'm a girl who's made the test herself. I enjoyed Camel's great flavor for 30 days and learned how wonderful Camel mildness is to my 'T-Zone'."

After all these different mildness tests, America's most popular cigarette — by even more billions — is Camel! The latest published figures show that Camel has its biggest lead in 25 years of cigarette history.

Camel's costly tobaccos are properly aged and blended for rich, full flavor and for cool mildness. The flavor is one you won't find in any other cigarette—rich and enjoyable pack after pack.

And only Camel offers the conclusive proof of mildness of the 30-day test. In this test hundreds of men and women smoked only Camels for thirty days. Each week their throats were examined by throat specialists who reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Decide for yourself — make your own thirty-day Camel mildness test.

WHAT ABOUT THE DOCTORS?

Again a leading independent research organization reports that more doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

As previously, doctors in every branch of medicine, doctors in all parts of the country were asked this question, 'What cigarette do you smoke, Doctor?'

As previously, the brand named most was Camel! According to this repeated nationwide survey, more doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

MARIO LANZA. Millions of American movie-goers are fast becoming fans of Mario Lanza, husky and handsome and possessor of one of the finest operatic voices in the country. Like so many millions of smokers, Mario is a Camel fan. "Camels taste great," says Mario, "and, being a singer, I appreciate Camel mildness. Camels agree with my throat."

NOTED THROAT SPECIALISTS REPORT ON 30-DAY TEST OF CAMEL SMOKERS...

Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Hundreds of men and women smoked only Camels for 30 days and noted throat specialists made weekly examinations of their throats. The doctors reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels! Make your own 30-day Camel test — in your 'T-Zone' — and see how mild a cigarette can be!

Bond Issue Endorsed By Lioness Club

Endorsement of the school bond issue was made by the Lioness Club at a recent dinner and business meeting held at Ringers Inn.

Welfare reports were made by committee chairman. Shoes have been purchased for the needy children and three Easter baskets of food were delivered to needy families. Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

Parlor Games

Television is rapidly becoming a big children's party in which any number can play. At birthday parties when I was roughly 10 years old, we pinned the tail on a donkey while blindfolded. On television, the children, whose ages range up to 50 years, play slightly more sophisticated games but the spirit of the thing doesn't change. The idea is to get a howl of laughter from the audience when you pin the tail on the wrong end of the donkey.

John Crosby

Did you ever play book-ends? Neither did I but a young couple played it the other night on "Beat The Clock" a CBS-TV show (7:30 p.m. EST Saturdays). They do everything but bob for apples on this show. One young couple won a prize for swinging billiard balls in a fishnet attached to their heads without spilling any. (If that's not clear, I'm sorry. It's the best I can do.) Another man, with a bottle balanced on his forehead, pulled jars of water over on himself, trying to fill the bottle and getting most of the water in his eye.

THEN THERE'S the game of "Hunt the Husband." The stage is filled with boxes, screens, curtains and one thing and another and the bride shoots about, peering into each one in an attempt to locate her husband within a specified time period. Looking at this with the completely cold, impartial eye, it's my opinion that "Hunt The Husband" is not nearly so rewarding or exciting a sport as "Run, My Good Sheep, Run" at which I was the acknowledged master in Oconomowoc, Wis., when I was eleven years old. But that's one man's opinion. Possibly a certain spiritual nourishment lurks in "Hunt The Husband" that is not visible to the on looker.

And there's the rub. It is conceivable these are great games to play but as spectator sports they fall far short of those oldfashioned contests—baseball, football, horseracing and boxing. I guess that's just one man's opinion, too, because these parlor games are blossoming all over the place on TV and must be fairly popular. Originally, "Beat The Clock," an old radio show, was a quiz contest in which contestants were asked questions and given a certain interval, 40 or 50 seconds to answer. Then some genius decided it would be more fun to make the contestants do things.

A WOMAN FOR example, is asked to balance a lot of unrelated objects—chairs, hatboxes, pillows, bottles—on her husband's back within a stated time. If she succeeds she gets loot. If she doesn't, she gets loot, too, though not so much. The proprietor and umpire of these indoor sporting events is Bud Collyer, a handsome smoothie who can talk uninterruptedly for hours and does.

Over WJZ-TV another refugee from radio, "Chance of a Lifetime," offers the same kind of foolishness under the auspices of that radio veteran, John Reed King.

Olney P.-T.A. Backs School Bond Issue

The Olney School P.-T.A. voted to endorse the new school bond issue at its regular meeting Thursday night at the school. The action was taken following a talk given by Robert Fay regarding the importance of the issue.

Rev. H. V. Falor, pastor of Oakland Evangelical United Brethren Church, conducted devotions. Guest speaker for the program was Miss Lydia Ebel, Girl Scout Council executive. She talked on Girl Scout activities in Marion and commended Miss Zeala Terry, a teacher at the school, who helped to found Girl Scout work in Marion.

Reports on the spring conference held at Delaware were given by Mrs. Delmar Gorentlo and Mrs. William Noel. Mrs. Herbert Phillians reported on a paper drive and cafeteria supper held recently at the school, and announced plans for a rummage sale April 28. The award for the largest number of parents present went to the second grade.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the second grade pupils, with Mrs. Robert Porter in charge. The next meeting, May 10, will be in the afternoon and will be in honor of the sixth grade boys and girls. The program will be by the pupils of the school.

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

Dicky and "X," escorted me into the hall outside my father's wing, after he had given us our dismissal, for it was nothing less, and when we were out of hearing, I put a worried question to both of them.

"What do you think of Father? Is he getting too fatigued over this?"

They hesitated perceptibly, then Dicky spoke.

"Of course, he's getting tired—he isn't young—or even middle-aged, yet he's working as if he were thirty and in the pink of condition. But what can we do? Absolutely nothing except jump at his bidding, and try to do nothing, to cross him."

"That's what I've been thinking," I said dolorously, and "X" spoke briskly, omitting his usual drawl.

"I don't think you need worry," he said. "He has a pretty good bit of spade work done on this thing, and, for my money, he's going to take care of himself, rest and relax for the next two days. Dollars to doughnuts, if you went back into his room, right now, you'd find him stretched out on his bed, drifting off into a good snooze."

"I agree with you," Dicky said with emphasis, and my worry lifted a bit, although it remained with me, a constant, nagging anxiety, during the busy hours which followed.

Katherine and Mary, with the aid of Katie and Mrs. Teer, rallied round," so efficiently that my packing problems, and settling the house of my absence in the city, were soon solved, leaving me free to devote my time to the four boys, our own son, Junior, and Dicky's three orphaned nephews, Bill, Hank, and Roderick Harrison, all four of whom wanted to enlist in the air force, as soon as they should return to college, Bill and Hank as seniors, Junior and Roderick as freshmen.

I tried to atone for my unwitting neglect of the two older boys, played seemingly endless games of chess with Hank, and listened to Bill's rhapsodies over his fiancee, Mildred Gray, and his plans for their future life when he should return from the air force; I forbade his using the word "if." And I had delightful walks with Junior, and with Roderick, brought up as Junior's brother, struggling however, as all mothers are doing in these terrible days, to keep down the awful dread that my future opportunities for such companionship already were shrouded in terror-filled doubt.

Kate surpassed even her notable culinary successes in the two final dinners she prepared for the boys, one a seafood dinner with so many courses that I could pick only a bit from each, the other a feast of roast chicken and strawberry shortcake, the berries fresh from the ever-bearing plot in the garden, Jim's pride, as well as many other favorites of the lads which Katie remembered.

"We'll have to transport them back to the city by ambulance instead of by armored car," Dicky prophesied, but his ominous prediction did not come true. The boys not only suffered no inconvenience, but to Katie's delight, they asked for a box of chicken sandwiches and other favorite tidbits into which they could dip on their journey back to the city.

Inevitably, at last came the morning when the armored car drew up at the veranda, and Katharine with young Peter in her arms, and Faith, in worshipful attendance, were handed into it, together with Dicky's mother. My father entered last, while a second armored car with four more guards in it, carried much of our luggage.

Dicky and I, with the four boys, elected to go together in the larger of our two cars, and the excitement of deciding which was to take over the driving first, helped relieve the tension of Mary's parting from her brothers. Our last glimpse of her was an enthusiastic wave of farewell, and a smiling face, although I knew that once we were out of sight she would be dissolved in tears in Noel's arms.

"Well, we're off!" Dicky said. "Wonder how the next chapter will open."

No Blood Was Spilled

THAT scuffle among United States senators at the close of last week will be added to the impression being made on foreigners by the free and American custom of letting everybody put in his nickel's worth.

The scuffle occurred when the senators convened to record their views for a news commentator. It did not occur to him there might be dynamite in bringing senators of divergent views together when feelings were running high.

It broke up when peacemakers stepped in to remind the scufflers that they were lowering their prestige. And in all probability the participants and the peacemakers will all be eating lunch together amicably in the Senate dining room next week.

That does not mean they must take back anything they said. Certainly it does not mean they must go through the fakery of pretending to like one another. It means only that in the United States there is a custom of threshing out things without spilling blood.

It is making a distinct impression abroad. It may win more friends for America than a lot of those calculated gestures of friendship. For it is the real America—not the moving picture type.

Bigger and Funnier

THERE is no reason to think an 18-man wage stabilization board would work any better than the 9-man board scuttled by the walkout of union labor's representatives. President Truman may as well give up the idea of trying to appease the disgruntled unionists.

The most likely result will be some disgruntled industrialists who will have to be appeased, too. And on top of them he may get a disgruntled public, which also is supposed to be represented on the wage stabilization board.

Union labor is the only minority which can designate spokesmen to represent itself. Industry has no control over anyone who speaks in its behalf, nor does agriculture, or the general public. Therefore, on any board which purports to represent all four points of view, only the union-labor viewpoint is subject to control.

Minority-bloc boards are a farce. They always have been a farce. Increasing their size from 9 to 18 members only makes them bigger and funnier.

What We Want To Know

By Raymond E. Moley

Applause for MacArthur May Have Useful Results

A GREAT many serious people are saying these days, mostly in private, something like this:

"I am not by any means taking sides in this more or less personal issue between Truman and MacArthur. In fact, I believe that both ought to be removed. But this is no way to determine a grave issue of foreign policy. There is something very disturbing in the violence of public reaction in favor of MacArthur.

"One reason why it is dangerous is that the cheering multitudes are activated as much by the past achievements of the man as for the specific policy that he advocated when he was removed. But such a burst of public sentiment may be interpreted as favoring the bombing of Manchurian bases and the unleashing of Chiang Kai-shek's army. The fervor for secession in the South and the fury for abolition in the North before the dread issue was drawn at Fort Sumter were examples of wrong way to make a grave decision. There was also the silly victory over Spain after the blowing up of the Maine.

"WE MAY IN FACT be witnessing at this moment a test of whether a democratic government with free and unrestrained public opinion is capable of survival under international strains as they are now. Especially when they are personalized, as this one is, as a choice between Truman and MacArthur."

There is a great deal of truth in this, but there is also a great question about the premises in such a point of view.

It is true that the unprecedented greeting for MacArthur proceeds from mixed motives. People are cheering for a man who over a period of 10 years has done more for this country than has any general since George Washington. Certainly it has been a greater achievement than that of Grant. For MacArthur not only won an infinitely more complex war than did Grant, but he won it despite handicaps imposed from Washington. And besides winning the war, he has won the friendship and confidence of a defeated enemy and has handled a job of civilian administration that Grant never had to face. For this he deserves all the acclaim he is getting and much, much more.

How much of the acclaim is a vote for his views on the future prosecution of the war in Asia no one can tell.

BUT I CANNOT agree that the public is not entitled to demand, however vociferously, that we have full information about past events and that MacArthur is the only person from whom they can get that information.

It is not so much what we don't know about foreign policy as what we do know that disturbs us. We want to know more about how and why Red China was permitted to dominate China. General Wedemeyer, who could tell us, is muzzled by the Administration's orders which MacArthur is alleged to have violated.

We want to know whether MacArthur approved of ground action in Korea and, if not, whether his advice was made known to the President.

We want to know all about the orders he received in pursuing the Korean war up to the moment of his removal.

These items would not upset any diplomatic plans, but they would enable the public to pass judgment on its own government. They would also enable the public opinion, if it would, to force the removal of Acheson and Marshall if they are, as is suspected, the authors of our Asiatic humiliation.

It Won't Bear Discussion

By TRUMAN TWILL

THERE would be less moaning and groaning about the weather if everybody forgot all the weather nonsense.

Too many poets and day-dreamers have monkeyed with weather. It has been fouled up by fake prophets and spurious seers. Weather should be handled by realists. All the humbug should be taken out of it.

Some of the things realists would get down to brass tacks about are as follows:

There is no springtime in the North Temperate Zone. There is only an interval between the severe part of winter and the severe part of summer. The nature of the interval is variable and usually satisfactory.

This is matched in October and November by another season of uncertainty known as autumn. During this season the weather occasionally is encouraging. But more often than not it is discouraging.

All weather should be divided for practical purposes on this basis—whether it is encouraging or discouraging. There are few days during the year which would not fit readily into one of these two categories.

Encouraging weather may happen any time during the year, but is least likely to happen during January, February, March, April, May, the first half of June, the last half of October, all of November and all of December.

The highest rate of encouraging weather is to be expected during the latter half of June and all of July, August and September. While this does not bar the possibility of encouraging weather during other months, it is not wise to expect it.

To be blunt about the whole matter, the trouble is that people expect encouraging weather and are disappointed when they don't get it. This climatic frustration shows up in the statistics on self-destruction and crime. There is a better way to seek an adjustment to the climate.

That is to assume that the weather will be discouraging 365 days a year and to be pleased and surprised when it isn't. That will happen often enough to keep acute morbidity from setting in. At the same time it will eliminate complaints about weather based on nothing more than personal disappointment.

There would be no disappointment if no one ever expected the weather to be encouraging. For example, no one expects government to save money, therefore it is a pleasant surprise when it does. That is the way it should be with weather.

The whole world should take it for granted each morning that the weather is going to be discouraging, unless there are signs to the contrary. In either event, there should be no further discussion of the matter—no rehashing of prophecies, no rules of thumb, no quotations from poetry, no complaints and no recriminations. The matter should be closed, like all other subjects which will not bear discussion.

Congress Quiz

Q—Does the army favor extra combat pay for front-line troops in Korea?

A—Frank C. Pace Jr., secretary of the army, April 5 told the Senate armed services committee the army favors a $50 bonus for combat troops (which would be provided under S 579). He said the pay would boost G.I. morale.

Great Victories Aren't Won Cheaply

By Walter Lippmann

THE CRUCIAL portion of Gen. MacArthur's speech came, of course, when he talked about Korea.

He had recommended, he said, six measures which were "designed to support our forces committed to Korea and to bring hostilities to an end with the least possible delay and at a saving of countless American and allied lives." These six measures, he told Congress, would bring "victory" and "in war there is no substitute for victory."

LIPPMANN

Gen. MacArthur's program for a victory arrived at with the least possible delay and at a saving of countless lives is strenuously opposed by all our fighting allies in Korea and it has been rejected by the President and his civilian and military advisers.

That is not because the opposition consists of people who would not like to have a victory and to save lives and to end the hostilities as quickly as possible. The opposition comes from those who do not believe that Gen. MacArthur's program will do what he told Congress it would do. They do not believe that the six measures he named can bring about that victory over China which he talked about.

THE SIX MEASURES for victory are to bomb Manchuria, to do air reconnaissance of China's coastal area and Manchuria, to intensify the economic blockade, which is already partially in effect; to impose a naval blockade of the China coast, to send "reinforcements" to Korea and to give "logistical support" to Chiang for operations against the Chinese mainland.

Gen. MacArthur argued that these six measures would defeat China. Why? Because "China is already engaging with the maximum power it can commit." Gen. MacArthur thinks that these measures may not bring Soviet Russia into the war because "the Soviet will not necessarily mesh its actions with our moves."

Thus Gen. MacArthur is assuming that the Air Force can bomb China, that the navy can blockade China against Soviet and other ships, that the Navy and Air Force can organize and support invasions or raids by Chinese infantry from Formosa, but that Red China can do no more in reply than she is now doing, and that Soviet Russia will "not necessarily" do more than she is now doing.

THIS IS A remarkable series of assumptions to make. Severally and jointly these assumptions amount to saying that the United States can wage war against China, which in another passage he described as "a new and dominant power in Asia," and that nothing more will happen to us, than is already happening to us in Korea.

If the general is right in his estimates and calculations as he gave them to the Congress, then this would be the cheapest and easiest victory over a great power in the history of warfare.

No wonder Senator Taft is enchanted with the prospect of so big a victory with such a little war.

At each stage since June 25 we have done what Gen. MacArthur wishes to do and more: we have promised ourselves big and glittering results with what, as the event showed, were quite inadequate military means.

ON JUNE 27 the president committed "air and sea forces to give the Korean government troops cover and support." On June 30 he authorized the use of "certain supporting ground units." The supporting ground units soon became most of the American Army as it then existed.

On Oct. 8, having defeated the aggressor south of the 38th Parallel, we entered North Korea and began the march to the Chinese and Soviet frontiers; thus, we said to ourselves, was the end of the war—nothing would happen while we mopped up the defeated army in North Korea.

Now we are being told that nothing will happen except that we shall, of course, be victorious in Korea if we bomb and blockade and invade China. Each time it was going to take only a little more military action to obtain great and glorious results. Only sea and air power, then merely some supporting ground units, then nothing but a mopping up action against a defeated enemy and now no war and not many more casualties, but only some bombing and some blockading and some transporting and arming of Chinamen. Then victory, for which there is no substitute in war, will be ours.

GREAT VICTORIES can never be won cheaply, but only by blood and sweat and tears. The great wars which must be waged in order to win great victories should not be begun in the illusion or under the pretense that they are little and easy wars.

It is not fair to the American people to permit them to think that one of the famous generals of our age believes that the wretched war in Korea can be ended victoriously and soon by a few measures which, it would seem, would cost the American people very little.

Jingoism in Canada

By George E. Sokolsky

LESTER B. PEARSON, Canadian secretary for external affairs, has announced a new foreign policy for Canada. The history of the relations between Canada and the United States has been close, cooperative and automatic. Mr. Pearson now announces that "days of relatively easy and automatic political relations with our neighbor are, I think, over."

SOKOLSKY

This news should have been as startling as our defeat in Korea, but it disappeared in the announcement of General Douglas MacArthur's dismissal. Yet, we have to get back to it because this country cannot afford to lose the friendship of Canada, our most important neighbor. Canada should mean more to the United States than any other country, as the two peoples are economically, politically and defensively dependent upon each other.

This is what Pearson said:

"The leadership then (after the war) given by the United States rightly won our admiration, and the steps that she has taken to implement them since, deserve our deep gratitude. The rest of the world naturally, however, took some time to adjust itself to a somewhat unexpected state of affairs. Canada, in my view at least in not making the adjustment more quickly should surely not be criticized more than, say Argentina or Egypt, or Sweden . . .

"You may recall that it was not many years ago that Colonel Lindberg suggested that Canada should be detached from membership in the British Commonwealth of nations because that international affiliation of ours might get the United States into trouble by involving the larger half of North America in Eropean wars. That seems a long time ago. There are certain people in Canada (I am not one of them), who think that the shoe, if not already on the other foot, is now being transferred to the other foot."

THIS MAY SOUND ambiguous and surprising to Americans. What it means is that Canada does not think so much of us.

On April 20, 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the prime minister of Canada, Mackenzie King, met at Hyde Park to form what was obviously an offensive and defensive alliance. The basic paragraph of this agreement is:

"It was agreed as a general

Marion County History Brevities

During the year 1875, there appeared in Marion County a furious animal, taken to be a panther or huge Canadian lynx. Numerous reports were made by Marionites of having seen the animal, but it was not until 1877 when it attacked a number of men in Union County and wounded them severely. Finally on Dec. 1 a man named Burnison, an engineer on the railroad, found the beast and after securing help, it was killed. It was later found to be a leopard.

Daily Bible Thought

There are some who live on a low plane and want nothing better, but no one but ourselves can make us really vile. Name calling changes nothing. — Job 18:3: "Wherefore are ye counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?"

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Willis the Whitewing Goes Anti-Korea

"Don't tell me these generals are fighting for a better world," groaned Willis the Whitewing as he took off weight cleaning the streets after the great parade for General MacArthur. "The better life for small peoples, my eye! Freedom! Baloney! This confetti and ticker tape will tie me down like I ain't been tied down since Lindbergh came home. Whaddaya mean, 'stopping aggressors everywhere'? How about those people who threw all this litter down on me?"

PHILLIPS

Willis, never a parade lover, was plenty sore this time. "This job finished me with Truman and the Democrats. They have been talkin' about makin' life easier for the common man for years, and look at these streets! They promise me they'll make it easier for me and what do they do? Call home our greatest national hero and bring on the biggest parade in years. If I am ever the same again it will be due to miracle drugs and a switch to the Republicans."

"The streets certainly took a beating," we observed.

"The blizzard of '88 couldn't of topped it," said Willie the Whitewing. "See that pile of confetti over there? I'll bet I'll find a half-dozen guys under it still tryin' to blow horns. Other parades had just one-handed ticker tape and confetti throwers. This one used only people who threw with both hands. I always said it was a mistake gettin' into Korea anyhow. We should get out."

"Immediately?" we asked.

"No. That would mean another parade and I wanna get a little rest after I get this one cleaned up," he replied. "But what have we got out of the Korean war? Brooms with longer bristles and shorter handles! Smaller shovels! Longer lines of marches! Pages that rip out of phone books easier!"

"Didn't you get a kick out of MacArthur's homecoming?" we asked.

"He's a great guy. I like him. But strictly before a parade, not after. With me he's exterdin' the struggle, not limitin' it. I expect to be strugglin' in this rubbish another ten hours. I hear the army is keepin' the Chinese off balance. Anyhow, that's where they're keepin' me."

"You don't favor a holding operation, do you?"

"The way I ache now I would even cheer for a stalemate," snapped Willie.

"Didn't you realize the world is in a state of crisis and that we must all do our part in any given situation?"

"So a broom and shovel stops Russia?" shrugged Willie. "So we show the Kremlin we are ahead in confetti! So we prove to Joe Stalin that we lead the world in ticker tape tossin'! I'll bet Malik would pay big money for a picture of me knee-deep in this litter."

"What for?" we asked.

"To rush to Izvestia showing me as an enslaved worker consigned by Wall Street to a life of hard labor and probably blaming my backache on the American military machine and capitalism. I hear Moscow is already changing the American people with dropping confetti in a rehearsal for dropping potatoe bugs and fly germs. Listen, bub, are you for lightening the burdens of people everywhere? Then grab a broom!"

YE GOTHAM BUGLE AND BANNER

The stock of a jeweler held in a basketball fix was sold at auction the other day. We hear nothing caused more laughs than the query from a bidder on a defective article, "Can this be FIXED?" . . . If the sailor charged with having $125,000 worth of dope on the Big No had had it when she went aground he could have gotten it off single-handed. . . . City of New York is offering a ferryboat holding 1,160 people and 60 autos to the highest bidder. It would have saved a lot of wear and tear on our house if we had had it as a television room during the big parade. . . . The country's most engrossed baseball fan was found during the MacArthur procession. Fellow asked him who the parade was for and he replied, "Mickey Mantle?" . . . The Office Tory calls Secretary Acheson Dizzy Dean . . . The envy of every kid in America yesterday was General MacArthur's 13-year-old son. What a time that lad is having!

VANISHING AMERICANISMS

"Nobody wants to stand around all day watching for a parade."

"You don't hear any band music these days."

"Let's not get into an argument."

"There's no use getting excited."

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO—It was Wednesday, April 23, 1941.

Informed sources in Washington predicted that thousands of taxpayers—little and big alike—would have to pay two or three times their present income tax if Congress adopted a Treasury Department program for raising $2,500,000,000 in new revenue.

The Marion County agricultural conservation committee was authorized by the government to seal 70,000 bushels of corn stored in the county under the "ever normal granary" program of the Department of Agriculture. It was the first such order received dealing with the more than 320,000 bushels of corn being held in the county.

Extensive damage was reported to early gardens in the city and county following a severe frost with a temperature drop to well below 30 degrees. Farmers were checking orchards for possible damage to budding fruit trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Von Kaenel, formerly of Marion, were parents of a son born in St. Rita's Hospital in Lima.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—It was Thursday, April 23, 1931.

A directed verdict for Marion County commissioners was given in a $40,000 damage suit brought against the board by Charles F. Lukens, father of Ruth P. Lukens, one of four school teachers drowned when their car crashed over an embankment along the Harding highway into a creek near Iberia, March 29, 1929.

The North State Street Community Club announced purchase of playground equipment for the North State Street School.

The Gamma Mu chapter of Delta Theta Tau Sorority met with Miss Margaret Morrow at her home on Barnhart street. Mrs. Roscoe V. Rank, Miss Mildred Hollandshead and Miss Iona Richards were appointed nominating committee for selection of club officers.

Father Eoudard Mateo, a member of the same congregation of which Father Lane is a member, and now is a worldwide devotional service.

Your Bank Would Advise It . . . .

If you have had any doubts about the wisdom of Pre-Arrangement for funeral service, ask the trust officer of your bank about it. His work deals largely with the planning and protection of estates. You could not seek better advice.
Pre-Arrangement is only another word for protection. It means protecting the welfare of dependents; protecting those in whom you are most interested from the necessity of making decisions at a time when they are least able to make them; protection for their memories by assuring capable service.
The management of the Hughes Funeral Home willingly offers to explain funeral service and its cost. When you have made your decision, the details can be put in writing if you so desire.

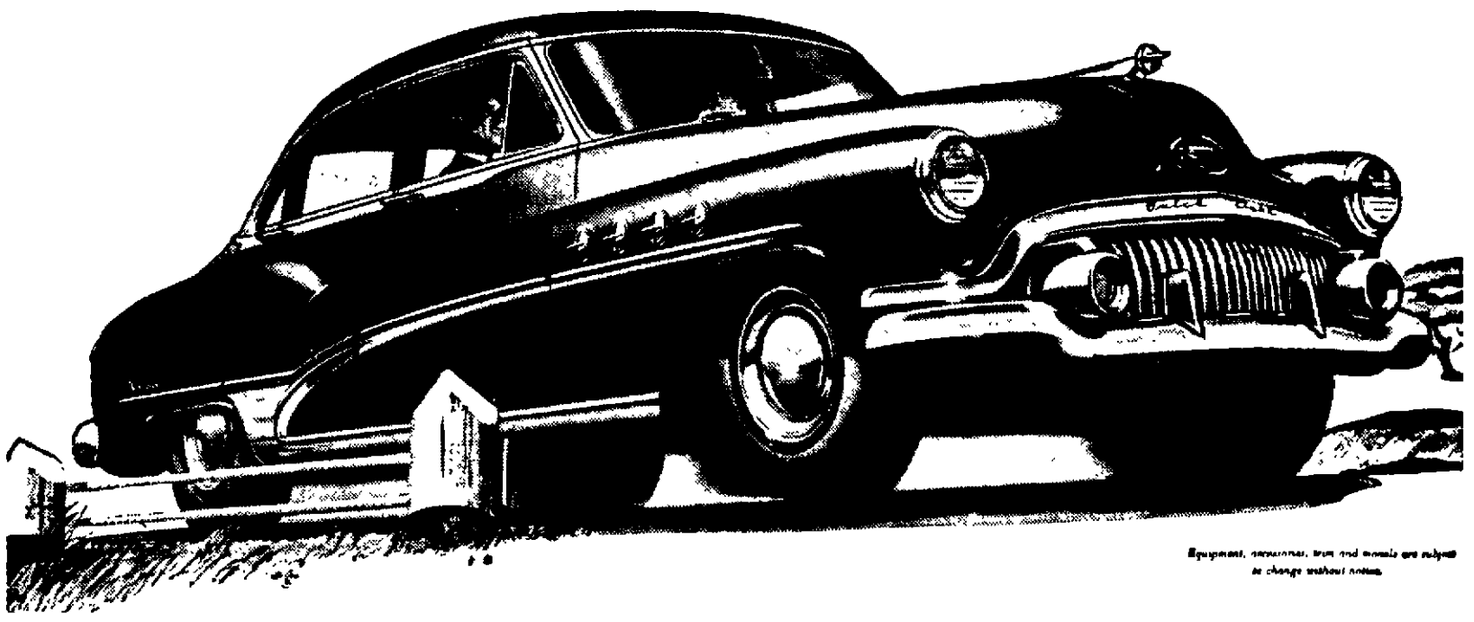
"Smart Buy's Roadmaster"

FIREBALL POWERED



Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

It started the day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance — and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling, considered the power — the features — the fabrics — the cloud-soft cushions — and the prices — and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle — a joy to ride in — and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflow Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through broad and uncluttered glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with high visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part — a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR ABC Network, every Monday evening.
